John and Jan Lindstrom have been the proud owner's of Lindstrom's Danish Maid Bakery & Coffee shop delivering scrumptious, quality pastries to the community since 1986. Under their ownership the bakery has continued to be a signature for Astoria. They specialize in fine pastries, cakes, wedding cakes, a large variety of fresh bread and great lunches served Monday through Saturday. The bakery itself has been in existence since 1925 and was founded by Harry A Morrow. It was then known as Morrow's Bakery. In 1942 it became Jones' Bakery when it was purchased by Harold and Verna Jones. In 1970 the bakery changed hands once again and was sold to Carl and Melanie Maxwell who renamed it the Danish Maid Bakery. In 1975 Howard and Dorothy Schoen purchased it and then sold it to Jan and John Lindstrom in 1986 which added to the name "Lindstrom's."
