A Family Tradition CANNON BEACH BAKERY

Home of World Famous Haystack Bread

Dan and Robin Christensen have been baking for nearly 42 years and are continuing their family traditions in Cannon Beach, Oregon.

Beginning the trade at the age of 12, Dan is a third-generation baker, with deep family roots in Denmark. These Danish family traditions are still in use at Cannon Beach Bakery today. The Danish is handmade and everything is made from family recipes with no trans fats.

The star item at Cannon Beach Bakery is our famous Haystack Bread. Traced back to a formula nearly 52 years old, the crusty loaves are known up and down the coast for their outstanding taste. Each loaf is hand-prepared start to finish just as it was in the early 1960's.

In 2004 they moved to their new location at 240 N. Hemlock, still in downtown Cannon Beach. With a total of 90 years combined, Dan and Robin pride themselves in offering deli sandwiches made from their own fresh baked breads, homemade soups, authentic danish pastries, wedding cakes and all occasion cakes made to order and many other favorites including the famous poppy seed cake. New menu items include quiche, sicilian veggie turnovers and ham & cheese croissants. Stop by today and see for yourself. Enjoy!

The Illahee Apartments

In the late 1950's, prominent local architect Ebba Wicks Brown believed that downtown Astoria needed a modern apartment complex. Her dream was to exceed all expectations, providing futuristic architecture with modern conveniences and unsurpassed views in a superior downtown location. Her passion was so great that she spent over ten years planning and designing the most up-to-date apartment complex in the Pacific Northwest. Construction began in 1968 on the block bordered by 10th, 11th, Franklin and Grand.

In 1969 The Illahee Apartments were opened. Today, The Illahee Apartments are operated by the third generation of owners, passionate about maintaining our history and our goal of providing a superior downtown housing experience for those who appreciate a great location and superior views. Long-term or short-term, furnished or unfurnished- The Illahee remains the premier River View apartment complex in Downtown Astoria!
