

SEASIDE OCEANFRONT INN

THE CONTEMPORARY BEACHFRONT BOUTIQUE HOTEL

In 1995 a new landmark was built onto Seaside's oceanfront landscape. Two blocks south of the Turnaround, standing five stories high with it's very recognizable clock tower, the Seaside Oceanfront Inn and Maggie's on the Prom, with it's new owners has undergone quite a transformation boasting newly updated rooms with an upscale boutique feel. I-Home Docking Stations, Flat Screen TVs and Blu-Ray DVD players are just a few of the modern upgrades you can look forward to while relaxing in your oceanfront room. The restaurant, one of only two oceanfront restaurants in Seaside, has also undergone a transformation with a locally sourced seasonal menu by Executive Chef Steven DeKay.

At Maggie's we are all about local. We love creating amazing and beautiful fare from our locally sourced and created product. From our seafood, sourced entirely from Ocean Beauty Seafoods in Astoria, Chef Steven DeKay creates amazing dishes like Seared Sea Scallops, Pan Seared Halibut, Cedar Planked Salmon and Seafood Fettuccini. All of our meat, from Filet Mignon and T-Bone to hamburger for our seasoned handmade burgers, is from the best meat company around, Reed and Hertig of Warrenton. Enjoy our fresh fruit and crisp veggies delivered several times a week. Our charcuterie is created by Olympic Provisions of Portland. We feature Bouy Beer of Astoria and Ninkasi from Eugene. Thundermuck is the name of the game for coffee here at Maggie's. If you are not familiar with Columbia River Coffee Roasters of Astoria, come on in for a cup you will not soon forget! Come in, taste local and enjoy our ocean view.

Emerald Heights Apartments was purchased by the Smith family in 1992. Emerald Heights was initially Navy and Coast Guard housing. The Smith's have been rehabilitating all buildings on the property, including new windows, roofing, carpeting, stoves and refrigerators. Each building has its own coin-operated laundry facility. Electricity, gas, water, sewer, and garbage are included with rent.

The property is extremely clean and well maintained.

Comfortable, affordable, country living at its best!
