

2015 ASTORIA REGATTA

CO-PRESIDENT
KEVIN LEAHY

Kevin Leahy is a fourth-generation Astorian. He graduated from Astoria High School, attended Clatsop Community College and graduated from Oregon State University with his Bachelor of Science in business administration.

Kevin is the executive director of Clatsop Economic Development Resources, Clatsop County's economic development organization, and the Clatsop Community College Small Business Development Center.

Kevin has life-long memories of the Astoria Regatta Festival, from participating in the Regatta Junior Parade at age 4 to spending each August with his three siblings and his father watching his mother Dolores "Dee" Leahy lead the Anchor Club in procession as the drill leader for 60 women for this service organization, which was formed to support the Astoria Regatta Festival.

Kevin is honoring the memory of his mom's 41 years of service to the Anchor Club this year as co-president of the 2015 Astoria Regatta Festival and was recently knighted by the Royal Rosarians. He selected the Dolores rose as his ceremonial rose.

Kevin has been married to his wife, Karen, for 33 years, with three adult children: Meaghan, Sean and Kelley. He considers his family his greatest accomplishment.

2015 ASTORIA REGATTA

CO-PRESIDENT
KATHY KOPPEN DEAN

Kathy Koppen Dean was born and raised in Astoria, graduating from Astoria High School. She is also a graduate of Bassist Fashion Institute of Portland and The Evergreen State College, Olympia, Wash.

Kathy was recently knighted by the Royal Rosarians, and selected the Evelyn rose as her ceremonial rose in honor of her Portland-born mother. Kathy's father, Sverre Koppen, was raised in Norway, and was a commercial fisherman in Astoria. The river, ocean, and fishing industry were an integral part of their daily lives.

Kathy has many fond childhood memories of the Astoria Regatta and has chosen to work toward keeping the Regatta an event that draws visitors to this area, showcasing our magnificent and historical Pacific Northwest.

Recently retired from a career encompassing the legal, educational and health care fields, she now has time for more artistic endeavors. This year, she and her husband, Steve Huntsberry, relocated across the river to Ilwaco, Wash., but her roots are firmly planted in Astoria.
