

Knappa Days promises fun

KNAPPA — The seventh annual Knappa Days will be held Saturday, Aug. 15 with two additional events held Sunday, Aug. 16. Knappa Days is a family-friendly event put on by the Knappa Boosters Club, which support the sports teams at Knappa High School. Most events will take place at Knappa Days Field, across U.S. Highway 30 from the Logger Restaurant.

printing and design business in Knappa, has made custom-designed bean bag boards, featuring creative images and words from individuals, families, business and event sponsors.

At dark, a movie will be shown on the field. Proceeds will benefit the Knappa High School class of 2017, who will run the movie and serve popcorn and candy.

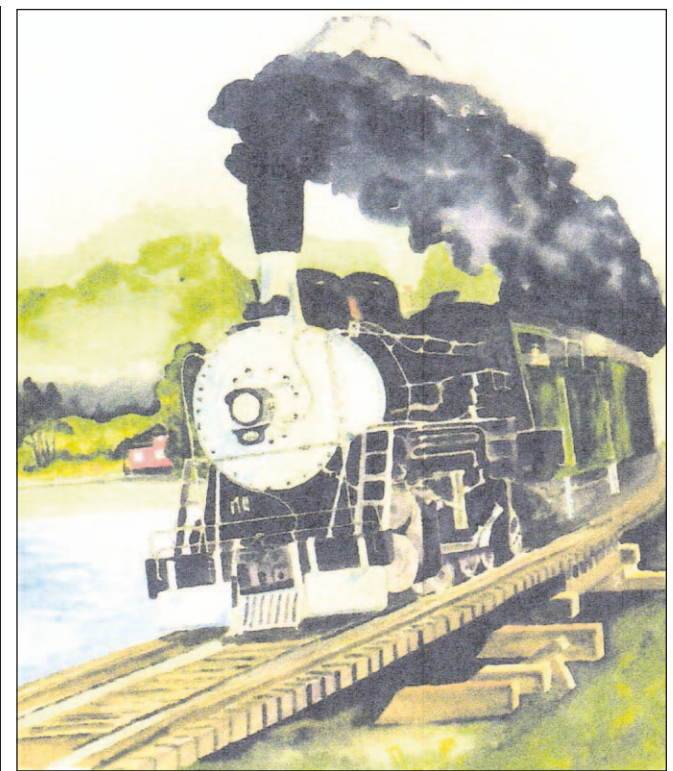

At 8:30 a.m. Sunday, the Christy Miethe and Lindy Yuill Memorial 5K walk / 10K run will take place, sponsored by Lower Columbia Hospice and Teevin Brothers Land and Timber. The run is in memory of Miethe and Yuill, two sisters who died two years apart. The race starts at Woody's Wabbits on Allen Road. Day-of registration costs $25, including a T-shirt; arrive at 8 a.m. or earlier to preregister. Proceeds from the walk/run go to the Christy Miethe Scholarship Fund.

The Mush Ball Tournament will be held all day Sunday from 10 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. at Danny Patterson Field. Registration fees will benefit the Lady Loggers Softball Team. Watch teams play ball and enjoy food and games.

At the end of the Mush Ball Tournament, the Knappa Boosters Club will draw winners for the raffle, which includes gift baskets, bikes, TVs, hotel stays and more. Raffle tickets will be for sale all day Saturday and Sunday. You do not need to be present to win.

Picture Attic hosts live art demos by NW Artist Guild

LONG BEACH, Wash. — The Northwest Artist Guild announces a permanent location for display of members' artwork. The Picture Attic will hang artwork by the guild, and each month will host a live art demonstration by a member.

August's featured artist is Wes Moehnke, who is noted for his watercolors featuring trains, cars and buildings.

Moehnke has an engineering background, and his work demonstrates the precision work of that field.

Moehnke will be at the Picture Attic from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 15 demonstrating his drawing and painting skills. The public is invited to attend. The Picture Attic is located at 711 Pacific Ave.
