

Paul Brent opens new watercolor art show

Fairweather House and Gallery hosts artist reception Friday

SEASIDE — Fairweather House and Gallery will host an opening reception for a new exhibition by artist Paul Brent, who is showing new watercolor originals and giclee prints. The reception will take place from 1 to 3 p.m. Friday, Aug. 21 at the gallery, located at 612 Broadway. A light brunch and champagne mimosas will be served.

Brent and his wife, Lana Jane, have an art gallery in Panama City, Florida, where they live part of the year. From June to October they live in Seaside, where they have had a home and an artist's studio for 10 years. In Seaside, Brent has been active in the Seaside Fourth of July Parade, demonstrating his painting techniques through a series of Painting Seaside LIVE events, and has participated in the Seaside First Saturday Art Walk events since 2008.

"Seaside Lifeguard Stand" by Paul Brent.

Brent's work has become internationally known to represent the coastal lifestyle. His paintings in watercolor and oil deftly portray the innate beauty of the sea on paper and canvas.

His work became more realistic with fewer splashes and geometrics.
