Kids enjoy rides at last year's Pacific County Fair in Menlo, Washington. Thursday is wristband day, where rides are open from noon to 9 p.m. for one price with a wristband.

Pacific County Fair offers traditional fun in Menlo

MENLO, Wash. — Pacific County, comprising the south-west corner of Washington State, is celebrating longtime traditions of its rural communities at the Pacific County Fair, happening now through Saturday, Aug. 29.

"The Pacific County Fair, now in its 119th year, is a must for anyone seeking a traditional country fair experience," said Andi Day, executive director of the Long Beach Peninsula Visitors Bureau.

This year's theme is Cluck Cluck, Oink Oink, Moo. Entertainment highlights of the fair include an Old Time Jam Fiddle Festival each day and performances by Scott McDougall, Lulu LaFever, Tony Wintrip, Jesse Lee Falls Band and Country Mile.

A fair favorite, the 28th annual Pacific County 4-H/FFA Market Livestock Auction will take place at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 28, as the Pacific County 4-H celebrates its 100-year anniversary.

This old-time country fair also awards blue ribbons for the best tasting jams, pies and preserves, as well as the best-looking and biggest homegrown produce, and much more.

Carnival rides, amusements and livestock exhibits round out the mix.
