CCC hosts Conference on Extraordinary Living this September

ASTORIA — Clatsop Community College will host its second annual Conference on Extraordinary Living, addressing the interests and challenges of adults in the local community. This one-day conference will take place on the CCC main campus, 1651 Lexington Ave., on Saturday, Sept. 12. Registration opens at 8:30 a.m., and conference sessions will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. A complimentary lunch is included.

A suggested donation for the conference is $10 at the door. Seating is limited, and pre-registration is requested by Monday, Sept. 7 by calling 503-894-0187 or emailing rmcclelland@clatsopcc.edu. The Conference on Extraordinary Living will show attendees how to live life to the fullest. Thirteen informative breakout sessions will be offered on topics such as: travel tips and information, nutrition for a healthy life, genealogy, hiking and national park trails, emergency and disaster preparedness, alternative medicine, volunteer and continuing education opportunities, transitioning to retirement and numerous other topics. The conference is sponsored by Columbia Memorial Hospital, Providence Seaside Hospital, Northwest Senior and Disabilities Services and ENCORE. Jaskoman brings reggae pop to Merry Time

ASTORIA — The Merry Time Bar and Grill will host a Full Moon Reggae party at 9:30 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 29 with reggae-ska-pop Portland-based band Jaskoman. Guests age 21 and over may enjoy the show by bringing a can or food or other non-perishable food item to donate to the Clatsop County Food Bank or pay a $5 entry fee. The Jaskoman Music Project's core group is centered around Barry Klusman, Louis Caldwell, and Rodney Turner. The band describes itself as essentially pop, done to the Caribbean beats of reggae, ska and soul calypso. Merry Time Bar & Grill owners Todd and Terry Robinett have been introducing a variety of live music to the venue since purchasing the business in 2014. In an effort to keep music accessible and affordable to all, they offer the option of donating a can of food for the local food bank as entry. Live music shows have raised nearly a thousand dollars and approximately 200 pounds in food for the local community.
