

Daughters of the American Revolution sponsor contests

Astoria Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, in conjunction with the National Society DAR, is sponsoring several student contests for the coming school year.

This year the theme for the American History essay for grades five through eight is "A Colonial Family's Reaction to the Stamp Act." Writers should describe a colonial family's discussion about the Stamp Act, and what role it played in organizing the colonists against the British King and Parliament.

The Christopher Columbus essay contest is open to students grades nine through 12. The title of the essay is "Columbus and Lindbergh: A Journey Across the Atlantic." Students are asked to discuss the similarities and differences between Christopher Columbus' voyage to the new world and Charles Lindbergh's first solo flight across the Atlantic Ocean. What effect did the 400 years between their accomplishments have on what each man hoped to achieve, the challenges they faced, and the skills essential to their success?

Information regarding the selection of a Good Citizen from each high school senior class is also included in the contest packet, along with information on completing an essay that may result in a scholarship for the student. The NSDAR has many scholarships for students both graduating high school and for those already in college. These can be found at www.dar.org. Each of these contests has monetary awards for winners at several levels. Information on the Junior American Citizens Contests, which are open to youth from preschool through grade 12, including other groups outside of school, can also be found on the website.

These contests involve various forms of art work as well as writing skills. The theme this year is "Celebrate America."

For information on any of the contests, contact Sandra Fuller at 503-325-2419.

The Astoria Chapter DAR begins fall meetings at 11 a.m. Sept. 16 at the Astoria Golf and Country Club, 33445 Sunset Beach Lane in Warrenton. Women wishing information regarding membership may contact Sue Glen at 503-861-0574.

For information, call the church at 503-325-4691 or go to www.graceastoria.com

Warrenton United Methodist Church, 679 S. Main Ave., is holding a Sing-Along-Service beginning at 10 a.m. Sunday. This service is presented each time there is a fifth Sunday in a month, and is an hour of scripture, prayer and music.

The songs for Sunday's service will be chosen on-the-spot by the people in attendance. Everyone will shout out their favorite hymn and accompanists Dave Warren (organ) and Diane Curs (piano) will lead the congregation as the requests are sung. The church has a collection of old and new hymnals so everyone's favorite is sure to be found in one of them.

Members and guests are encouraged to come early to have a cup of coffee and peruse the hymnals to make their selections, or simply arrive on time and enjoy a meaningful hour of praise. After the service, all are welcome to stay for a picnic barbecue. The church has off-street parking, and is handicapped accessible.

For information, call the church at 503-861-0825.

Peace Lutheran
Peace Lutheran Church is sponsoring worship services beginning at 2 p.m. Sunday at Clatsop Care Center, 646 16th St., and at 3 p.m. at Clatsop Retirement Village, 947 Olney Ave.

For information, call 503-325-3871.

RELIGION BRIEFS

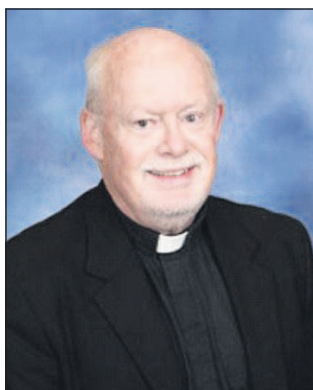

First Lutheran

First Lutheran Church, 725 33rd St., is honoring the Rev. Ron McCallum, who is retiring after 32 years in the ministry, at the 10 a.m. Sunday worship service with a Blues Mass titled "Conclusion of a Call." In addition, assistant to the bishop, Susan Kintner, is conducting a brief ceremony that is reserved for retiring pastors.

McCallum has served in a wide variety of places since his graduation from the seminary, including churches in Michigan, Oregon and Alaska, and mission work with the Navajo Indians in Arizona, Alaskan Natives in Shishmaref, Alaska, and in Senegal, Africa.

All are welcome to attend the service and the extended Farewell Coffee Hour afterwards.

McCallum and his wife,

Rev. Ron McCallum

Karen, will be at home in Grants Pass.

St. Mary, Star of the Sea

The Rev. Todd Molinari is visiting the St. Mary, Star of the Sea Catholic Church Parish Saturday and Sunday, is the celebrant at all Masses for the weekend. Parish volunteer opportunities for the religious education program include: a teacher for grades K-2 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. (flexible) Thursdays; an assistant from 1 to 3:30 p.m. Thursdays; and an assistant for Middle School Youth Group from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Sundays. Volunteer positions require a background check and child safety training.

For information, call the church at 503-325-3671.

Astoria First Baptist

Astoria First Baptist Church, 349 Seventh St., welcomes a new pastor and his family. The Rev. Rob Sturdivant is being honored at his Installation Service at 11 a.m. Sunday. A potluck and reception follow the service.

Sturdivant is a native Oregonian. He recently relocated from the Eugene area with his wife, Jennifer, and son, Nick.

For information, call the church at 503-325-1761 or go to <http://fbcastoria.org>

Grace Episcopal

There is a single 9 a.m. Sunday service, outside at Grace Episcopal Church, 1545 Franklin Ave., which begins with a dedication of the renewed north side of the church. A potluck picnic follows. The church's J Walker Youth Group of Grace is visiting the Willapa Bay Wildlife Sanctuary and labyrinth Sunday afternoon.

School supplies are still being collected to benefit families who come to the Grace Food Pantry.

The art hanging in the Parish Hall this month is by local artist Joan Masat, and will hang through September.
