Author J.A. Jance comes to Cannon Beach
Award-winning writer to speak at free Coaster Theatre event

CANNON BEACH — The Cannon Beach Library will again sponsor a presentation by bestselling author J.A. Jance at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 15 at the Coaster Theatre. The event is free and open to the public. Jance will speak and sign books, and books will be for sale through the Cannon Beach Book Company.

Jance brings together two beloved protagonists in her newest novel, the suspenseful "Dance of the Bones," which was released Sept. 8. Her army of devoted fans has followed the adventures of flawed Seattle homicide detective J.P. "Beau" Beaumont across 20 gripping novels and novellas since 1985.

More recently the author developed a new series that has won fast and consistent acclaim, featuring Arizona sheriff Brandon Walker, a retired lawman who dabbles in solving cold cases for an organization of legal experts known as The Last Chance.

Now in a masterwork certain to delight longtime readers and win over many new ones, Jance brings these two dynamic protagonists together in "Dance of the Bones." Two cold cases over 1,500 miles apart suddenly become red-hot and connected.

Jance is the author of the J. Beaumont series, the Joanna Brady series, the Ali Reynolds series and the Walker Family series. Over 20 million copies of her books are in print. Born in South Dakota and brought up in Bisbee, Arizona, Jance lives with her husband in Seattle and in Tucson, Arizona.

The Coaster Theatre is located at 108 N. Hemlock St. For more information on the Northwest Author Series, call the library at 503-436-1391 or visit www.cannonbeachlibrary.org
