Local 4-H dog owners win at Oregon State Fair

Candice Kerr, with her black Labrador Retriever, Jammer, and Dalton Smith, with his Great Dane, Daisy, represented Clatsop County and their 4-H dog club, Paws n' Action at the 150th Oregon State Fair Aug. 28 in Salem.

At the most advanced level offered that day, Smith and Daisy won Obedience champion, only one point ahead of Kerr and Jammer, who took reserve champion.

The obedience class was Graduate Novice, which means that all but one exercise is performed off-lead, where the dog is free to move about without limitations. Kerr also won a Top 12 Medallion with Jammer in Showmanship, the only required event for all dog competitors.

Also during the 2015 Clatsop County Fair, Kerr won champion in Dog Judging, a test on all knowledge associated with dogs; champion in Intermediate Dog Rally Obedience; reserve champion

Smith won a red in Brace (two dogs together); reserve champion in Intermediate Dog Rally Obedience; reserve grand champion in Intermediate Dog Showmanship; and grand champion in Graduate Novice Dog Obedience.

Older couples invited to attend workshop

A workshop, "Couples in Transition: Midlife and Beyond," is being presented Sept. 18 in Room 219, Columbia Hall, at Clatsop Community College, beginning at 8 a.m. with registration and a continental breakfast. The workshop is from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Couples age 50 or older: What makes this group so different from other ages, and what do therapists do to meet the growing demand for services with the "tsunami" proportions of people in this age group? The workshop provides new insights, methods and strategies to work effectively with client couples, with guest speakers Rich Hedlund and Pam McGill.

Hedlund has many years of experience in intensive family therapy, couples work, and group and individual therapy. Most recently, he has been involved in developing older adult life coaching and elder peer counseling programs. He holds master's degrees in marriage and family therapy and public administration.

McGill has worked in behavioral health as a nurse, marriage and family therapist and psychiatric nurse practitioner working with adults. Her experience ranges from individual, couples and group therapy. As a nurse practitioner, she also prescribes psychotropic medication.

Together, Hedlund and McGill have researched and developed a program for transitions to older adulthood, and practice together in Loveland, Colo. Having lived in Astoria for several years prior to Colorado, they will soon be returning to the Pacific Northwest to continue their work with the over-50 population.

The cost for the workshop is $150. To register, call Candis Sollars at 503-791-0993.

Jewell School reunion set

JEWELL — A Jewell School All Class Reunion for alumni, staff, board members and their families is being held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sept. 19 in the school's cafeteria, 83874 Oregon Highway 103. Lunch is being provided by the school. The Class of 1965 — Del Borders, Allen Fitzpatrick, Janet Mitts and Michael Tiedeman — will be recognized for its 50th year. Plan to join friends and former classmates for a time of reminiscing, laughter and food. Bring memorabilia to share; assorted annuals will be on display.

WEDDINGS

Quigley — Smith

Allison Quigley of Delta Junction, Alaska, daughter of Richard and Jennifer Quigley of Astoria, exchanged wedding vows with Brook Smith, also of Delta Junction, on Saturday, May 30, 2015, at the Winn Homestead in Weston. The groom is the son of Doug Smith and Mary Ann Jesse, both of Astoria.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. The officiant was Sky Smith, brother of groom.

Brook and Allison Smith

Maid of honor was Kristann Quigley of Warrenton, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Ariel Mercier of Sterling, Alaska, friend of the bride and groom, and Harmony Margart of College Place, Wash., sister of the groom.

Best man was Brent Culver of Astoria, friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Forrest Smith of Nelson, New Zealand, and Lake Smith of Bend, brothers of the groom.

The bride is a 2008 graduate of Astoria High School, and a 2012 graduate (cum laude) of Eastern Oregon University, with a bachelor's degree in multidisciplinary studies and elementary education. She is currently pursuing a master's degree in education from Eastern Oregon University, and is an elementary school teacher.

The groom graduated from Astoria High School in 2007. He graduated from Eastern Oregon University with bachelor's degrees in history and English in 2012, and received his master's degree in teaching in 2013, also from EOU. He is a high school social studies and English teacher.

A reception was held at Winn Homestead. Appetizers and dinner were provided by Graze Catering of Walla Walla, Wash., and dessert was a "build your own" ice cream sundae bar and wedding cupcakes by Frosted of Walla Walla. Music for the wedding and reception were provided by DJ Chad Pinkelman, of Lake Stevens, Wash., a friend of the bride and groom.

The newlyweds spent two months visiting 11 National Parks in 10 western and southwestern states, touring in their camper van. A winter getaway to someplace tropical will complete their honeymoon plans.

The couple resides in Delta Junction.

Quigley — Cibulka

Kristann Quigley of Warrenton, daughter of Richard and Jennifer Quigley of Astoria, exchanged wedding vows with Nicolas Cibulka of Astoria on Saturday, June 13, 2015, at Ecola State Park in Cannon Beach. The groom is the son of Brenda Frehner and Douglas Cibulka, both of Wisconsin.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. The ceremony was performed by Sarah Malinen, friend of the bride.

Nicolas and Kristann Cibulka

The bride graduated from Astoria High School in 2004. She received an associate degree in applied science from Clatsop Community College in 2006, and an associate degree in dental hygiene from Clark College in Vancouver, Wash., in 2008. She is a dental hygienist at Tongue Point Job Corps.

The groom graduated from high school in Wisconsin in 2000, and from the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh with a bachelor's degree in sociology in 2007.

He received his master's degree in counseling in 2014 from Lakeland College in Plymouth, Wis. He is a mental health therapist at Willapa Behavioral Health.

The reception was a backyard barbecue at the home of the bride's parents, complete with build your own s'mores.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Seaside, and reside in Warrenton.
