Since forming in 2006, Presidio Brass has rocketed to success as the face of a bold new generation in brass entertainment. By combining a brass quintet, piano and percussion instruments with fresh, original arrangements, their sound has become a trademark for the ensemble from San Diego, California.

Each member of the ensemble began their music career by joining a school's band program. Inspired by the dedication of their school music teachers, Presidio Brass came together with the primary mission to promote music education and music appreciation in youngsters.

Members of the Presidio Brass have performed with major symphony orchestras, including the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Las Vegas Philharmonic, Pacific Symphony and San Diego Symphony. When not on tour, they continue to perform with orchestras, maintain private teaching studios at local universities, arrange and compose new music, assist with public school music programs, and operate an annual summer music camp for students of all ages.

In keeping with that mission, the five performers will

Outpace diabetes with South Slough Scramble

Celebrate National Public Lands Day with Fort Clatsop race

ASTORIA — Lewis and Clark National Park Association, Providence Seaside Hospital and Sunset Empire Parks & Recreation District are teaming up to spread awareness of diabetes.

At 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 26, Lewis and Clark National Historical Park will host the sixth annual South Slough Scramble.

This Outpace Diabetes hike/run will include a health fair with information about diabetes, nutrition and heart-healthy habits. The start/finish line and the health fair will be at the park's Netul Landing, approximately 1.5 miles south of Fort Clatsop.

Runners and hikers can register for one of two options: a 5K loop or a roughly 10K loop. Both loops will take participants along the ups and downs of the South Slough Trail, into the coastal hills, and along the Lewis and Clark River. The routes cross a number of scenic boardwalks and bridges. No strollers or pets are allowed. The event will be held rain or shine.

Pre-register for free at the Fort Clatsop Visitor Center or
