Sign up for OSU Master Gardener training class

ASTORIA — Now is the time to register for the Oregon State University Clatsop County Extension Service Master Gardener Program.

Applications are available online at <http://tinyurl.com/osuclatsopgarden>, at the Clatsop County Extension office, located in Room 210 at 2001 Marine Drive in Astoria, by calling 503-325-8573, or request an application by email from Stacey Hall at stacey.hall@oregonstate.edu.

Classes are held at Clatsop Community College's South

County Campus in Seaside from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesdays beginning Jan. 6 and ending March 23. Students will receive over 60 hours of intensive gardening education in the classroom and an additional 60 hours of volunteer service as hands-on training. The cost is $150 and includes your handbook.

The master gardener curriculum provides the volunteer with information and references on subjects such as botany, soil management, pruning techniques, integrated pest management and more. The classes are taught by OSU Extension faculty, veteran master gardeners and experts in their respective fields. Students of all ages and abilities, beginners and experienced gardeners alike, are welcomed in the program.

Students' volunteer service is a fun time spent working on projects such as the OSU Extension Master Gardener Information Line, Astoria Sunday Market or other plant clinics, as well as hands-on gardening in the Demonstration Garden. The remainder of students' community service may be spent on projects such as helping to develop a pet-friendly garden at the animal shelter, teaching high school students the basics of gardening, and the annual Spring into Gardening and Winterizing your Garden events.

If you like to have fun exploring gardening and are prepared to learn more about sustainable gardening methods to share with the local community, apply to the Extension Office by Nov. 30.

Oysterville series begins

OYSTERVILLE, Wash. — This fall's Oysterville Town Hall Lectures begins Sept. 24. Robert Brake will give the talk "It Goes Without Saying: The Fascinating World of Nonverbal Communication."

The lectures place every other Thursday at 10 a.m. at the Oysterville Schoolhouse.

On Oct. 8, Oysterville resident and University of Washington Professor Shawn Wong will speak about the "Literature of World Travel."

On Oct. 22, "Two Young Men Leave Germany to See the World" by Tucker Wachsmuth. Both young men were his ancestors. One made his way to Oysterville; the other had a different fate.

November includes Peter and Linda Janke, who will talk about "World Travel, With or Without a Tour Guide." Sam Blake of Never Cry Wolf Rescue and Adoption is scheduled to talk about "The World of Wolves" on Nov. 19.

Restaurateur Nanci Main will give the final talk Dec. 3 about "Planting Peace Trees in Vietnam."
