

Fishermen win a Clatsop Smash, 36-3

The Daily Astorian

SEASIDE — It was a perfect night to “Take Back the Clash” for the Astoria Fighting Fishermen.

After enduring tough losses to Seaside the last two years, Astoria football once again rules the Clatsop Clash, as the Fishermen dominated in a 36-3 win over the Gulls Friday night.

The big rivalry game at Broadway Field was never really in doubt, with Astoria scoring on its first offensive play from scrimmage, a 12-yard run by Carter Wallace.

Wallace added two more touchdown runs as the Fishermen rolled up 222 yards on the ground, and the Astoria defense allowed just 108 yards in total offense.

Whitney Westerholm's 21-yard field goal with 2:05 left in the game helped Seaside avoid the shutout, while the Gulls continued to lose starters.

Already without its first- and second-string quarterbacks (Otto Hoekstre and Jaxson Smith), Seaside started Alex Barker behind center, and ran out of the ‘Wildcat’ formation all night.

Barker left with a shoulder injury late in the first half, and senior Nathanael Ward finished the game at quarterback.

Meanwhile, the Fishermen can start prepping for the playoffs.

Three league wins puts Astoria (3-1 in league) into at least the Regional Play-In round. The 11th-ranked Fishermen play at Banks (3-1) Friday. Seaside (1-3) completes the regular season at Scappoose (4-0).

Astoria's Andrew Schauermaann kicked a 29-yard field goal to give the Fishermen a 9-0 lead after one quarter; while Wallace had a TD run and Ryan Palek caught a 14-yard scoring toss from Fridtjof Fremstad for a 23-0 halftime advantage.

Wallace and Clay Englund had TD runs in the third quarter as the lead reached 36-0.

Wallace finished with 106 yards rushing on 14 attempts, and did not play in the fourth quarter.

Ryker Helmersen and Jared Lucore had interceptions for Astoria, while Seaside was unable to take advantage of good field position, provided by two big kickoff returns from sophomore Anthony Orozco.

Astoria's Carter Wallace, No. 21, runs through a tackle by Seaside's Nathanael Ward, No. 22, in the first quarter of the football game at Broadway Field Friday.

Seaside players dive on the ball after Astoria's Kainoa Kaonohi, No. 45, forced a fumble on Seaside's Nathanael Ward, No. 22.

Astoria's Carter Wallace, No. 21, makes a lot of Seaside defenders miss as he runs in the first quarter. See more photos from the game online at www.dailyastorian.com

Tigers edge Warrenton in 28-14 win

The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — Clatskanie was able to stay one step ahead of the Warrenton Warriors Friday night in a key Lewis & Clark League football game.

The Warriors tried to rally from a 14-0 halftime deficit with a pair of second half touchdowns, but the Tigers answered each time with a score of their own for a 28-14 win over Warrenton.

Gavon McFadden caught a 49-yard, third quarter touchdown toss from Giovanni Martinez to help the Warriors trim the Clatskanie lead to 14-6, but the Tigers responded with a 39-yard Cooper Starkel-to-Dawson Howard touchdown.

Clatskanie's Wyatt McKay had a fourth quarter TD, shortly after another Martinez-to-McFadden touchdown.

Martinez passed for 180 yards, but the Warriors were held to just 10 yards rushing on 25 attempts. McFadden caught four passes for 64 yards.

Nestucca 46, Knappa 0

CLOVERDALE — The Knappa Loggers threw three interceptions and lost three fumbles and an onside kick.

Seven lost possessions will cost any team, as it did the Loggers Friday night at Nestucca.

The Bobcats took advantage of the Knappa miscues to score a 46-0 win.

Nestucca's Wyatt McKillip ran for 115 yards and three touchdowns, and teammate Oli Samek added 74 yards and two scores.

Knappa's Andrew Goozee had 56 yards rushing, and Braedon Eltagonde caught five passes for 22 yards.

Raymond 14, Ilwaco 13

RAYMOND, Wash. — Raymond jumped out to a 14-0 halftime lead, then held on for a 14-13 win over Ilwaco in a Pacific 2B League game Friday night.

The Fishermen missed a 26-yard field goal attempt in the fourth quarter, and a point-after kick in the third period came up short.

Ilwaco's James Schenk had a 70-yard fumble return for a touchdown, and Ethan Bannister caught an 8-yard pass from Jack Odneal late in the third quarter.

Tulalip 74, Naselle 40

OAKVILLE, Wash. —

Naselle's Jacob Scrabeck rushed for 263 yards and five touchdowns, but it still wasn't enough Friday night at Tulalip Heritage, which scored often in a 74-40 nonleague win over the Comets.

KNAPPA — The Knappa volleyball team cruised past Life Christian in a Northwest League volleyball match Saturday, 25-15, 25-23, 25-18.

Kaitlyn Landwehr had 11 kills, eight assists, six digs and three ace serves for the Loggers, who finish fourth in the league standings as they tune up for the league and state playoffs.

Paris Vanderburg added six assists and Jaden Mieth and Ashly Silva each had 10 digs for Knappa.
