First Lutheran

The Biblical parable of the talents (Matthew 25:14-29a) came alive Sunday at First Lutheran Church, when the pastor, Keith Swenson, passed out $20 to adults and $10 to children at the church services. Members and friends of the church also received red envelopes explaining the program challenge, Talents Multiplied.

Talents were a denomination of money in Biblical times. On Sunday, talents referred to the talented people of First Lutheran Church whose challenge it is to be good stewards of the gifts they have been given, such as personal abilities, good minds and creative skills, and use them to do additional community outreach.
