OBITUARIES

Rosemary Frances Kemper-Riddock

Seaside
 Dec. 1, 1941 — Oct. 19, 2015

Rosemary Frances Kemper-Riddock, 73, a longtime resident of Banks, Oregon, and a resident of the Seaside community over the last 10 years, passed away peacefully on Monday evening, Oct. 19, 2015, at St. Vincent Medical Center in Portland.

Rosemary Kemper-Riddock

A funeral Mass will be celebrated at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 24, 2015, at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church, 120 Oceanway in Seaside, Oregon. Family and friends are invited to attend a reception following the Mass, held at the parish hall. The Rite of Christian Burial will take place following the reception at 3:45 p.m. at Visitation Catholic Cemetery in Verboort, Oregon.

Rosemary was born on Dec. 1, 1941, in Long Beach, California. She was one of three children born to Charles and Frances (Amerata) Smith, and moved with her family to Portland, Oregon, as a young girl. She attended St. Mary of the Valley through high school, graduating with the class of 1959. She earned her bachelor's degree from Marylhurst University and a master's degree from Portland State University.

She met her husband, Nolan Kemper, while attending a baseball game he was playing in at East Moreland Park in Portland. After a dance-filled courtship, they were married on Aug. 10, 1963. After getting married they were both hired as schoolteachers by the U.S. Department of Defense, and for over a decade they taught school on U.S. military bases all over the world, including Midway Atoll, France, Turkey, Germany and the Philippines.

After traversing the globe they returned home in 1974, and together built their family home in Banks. Rosemary worked in the home raising her kids, and as a substitute teacher in the Banks school district, until Nolan passed away suddenly in 1983.

After Nolan's death she returned to teaching full time at Dilley Elementary School, and later became the curriculum director for Forest Grove School District. She finished her educational career in 2010, after serving as the principal of Cannon Beach Elementary for three years.

In 1986 she met Michael Riddock through mutual friends, and they were married a year later, living in Banks until 2007, before moving to Seaside. Michael passed away in July 2012.

Rosemary loved the beach, enjoyed hiking with friends and set new standards for grandmother excellence, showering her six grandchildren with love, books and her handmade quilts. She volunteered at her church, Our Lady of Victory, and sang in the church choir.

She lived to help others, and was integral in the founding and success of Seaside's Food 4 Kids, an organization that provides food-filled backpacks every Friday during the school year to kids who request assistance. More than anything, she loved helping others, and devoted her life to making everyone she encountered feel like they mattered.

She is preceded by her first husband of 20 years, Nolan Kemper; her second husband of 25 years, Michael Riddock; her parents; and her sister, Nicki Ard.

Survivors include her four children and a daughter-in-law: Karl Kemper of Ashland, Chris and Jill Kemper of Portland, Katrina Kemper of Yokosuka, Japan, and Kerry Kemper of Portland. She is also survived by her brother, Pat Smith, and his wife Pam, of Gladstone, Oregon, and six grandchildren: Jordan, Jackson, Alexis, Nola, Cade and Luke.

The family suggest donations in Rosemary's name to Food 4 Kids Seaside Oregon, P.O. Box 2611 Gearhart, OR 97138

Frank Joseph Schrott

Warrenton
 April 9, 1930 — Oct. 17, 2015

*"An angel whispered
 Take my hand and
 Come with me
 Your work here is done"*

Frank Joseph Schrott passed away peacefully on Oct. 17 at Providence Seaside Hospital, with family at his side.

Frank was born in New York, New York, to Wendelin and Mary Schrott. He lived in New York City until his marriage to Mary Theresa Schrott (née Bromell) in 1950, and they subsequently moved to Long Island, New York, and raised three daughters.

Frank had many jobs, and usually more than one at a time. He loved work and never complained. Later in life he was a self-employed contractor specializing in tile work. His family has portfolios of his beautiful work.

Frank moved to Oregon from New York in December 2001 to be near family. Frank loved life. Anyone who knew him knew that. He was the quintessential people person. Great humor, great smile and generosity. He loved golf, dancing, cooking, reading, water skiing, scrabble, cards and most of all, his daughters and his friends. To know him was to love him.

Frank is survived by daughters Nadine A. Kelly (Patrick T. Kelly) and Tracey A. Schrott, granddaughter Brook Brim (Stacey Brim), great-grandson Drew Arroyo, and also by one brother, Joseph Aschauer (Maye). He was preceded in death by three brothers and his daughter, Victoria.

The family would dearly like to acknowledge and thank Avamere at Seaside Memory Care and Providence Seaside Hospital. Their outstanding medical and personal attention to our father's needs brought us tremendous consolation.

A private family memorial is planned. Remembrances may be made to the Wounded Warrior Project, P.O. Box 758517, Topeka, KS 66675.
