2 to 5 p.m.

GEARHART — November begins the holiday season. Look at your calendar for the month. Dinners, friends, brunches, family, celebrations and other gatherings all create a reason to take a gift. Be prepared for whatever comes your way with selections at the Gearhart ArtWalk, taking place from 2 to 5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 7. Look for the “Welcome to the SHORE” flags indicating participating merchants.

A Great Gallery

576 Pacific Way

This month, A Great Gallery is featuring more of the wonderful colors of fall with new pastels of the amazing October skies, new giclees, and seasonal stationery boxes. Find new napkin rings by DM Designs, crafted for the holidays and a great hostess gift. There will also be pottery and handcrafted gift tags by Suzy Holland and new package embellishments by Ashley Thomas. Enjoy a piece of chocolate magic while you visit.

Romancing the Home

3350 U.S. Highway 101 N.

Artist Gayle Pedemonte will present her latest impressionistic oil paintings at Romancing the Home during art walk. The subject of Pedemonte's work is familiar to the local community, whether a painting depicts a coastal scene or the surrounding countryside.

Trail's End Art Association

656 A St.

Trail's End Art Association will feature the varied and colorful art of Chris Bryant. The public is invited to meet the Astoria artist and see her creations, view the work of other local artists and enjoy refreshments at a reception during art walk. Bryant's paintings, assemblages, mixed-media and ceramics will be displayed in the gallery with a DVD playing in the main classroom showing additional examples of her art. At 3:30 p.m. guests can watch Bryant demonstrate her impressionistic painting style using a palette knife. This retrospective of Chris's art through the years reflects her philosophy that variety is the spice of life.
