5 to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — Downtown merchants and galleries will hold Astoria's Second Saturday Art Walk from 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 14. Meet artists and mingle with fellow art lovers while enjoying refreshments and new exhibits.

ART BUSINESSES

1. Imogen Gallery

240 11th St.

Imogen presents an invitational exhibition that explores humanity through portraiture, with work by Reed Clarke, April Coppini and Christos Koutsouras. The exhibit invites viewers to step closer, see themselves through the eyes of others and discover what it means to be a part of humankind.

2. Imogen at Carruthers

1198 Commercial St.

In celebration of the Astoria Column restoration, Imogen Gallery hosts a threefold exhibition at the Carruthers Building. View artwork by 14 crew members. Astoria High School art students interpreted the full mural's imagery in segments. See an interpretive display of historic photographs collected by local historic preservationist John Goodenberger, who assisted with the 1995 and 2015 restorations.

3. RiverSea Gallery

1160 Commercial St.

Astoria artist Charles Schweigert shows new abstract painting and ventures into three dimensions with mixed-media sculpture. The show incorporates the poetry of local writer Karin Temple, who has written poems inspired by the sculptures. Temple will give a poetry reading at 5 p.m. Saturday; Schweigert will be on hand. "Lost Dolls at Sea" introduces the ceramic figurative sculpture of Portland artist Dawn Pantajja. This collection features poseable figures with riveted joints and sculpture that gives a nod to mermaids, sea sprites and other denizens of the sea.

4. Old Town Framing Company

1287 Commercial St.

Old Town Framing presents a silent auction art show, with proceeds benefiting the Little Ballet Theatre's upcoming 41st annual holiday production of "The Nutcracker." Enjoy refreshments by Bridewater Bistro.

5. Tempo Gallery

1271 Commercial St.

Tempo Gallery artists have created a special show of miniature artworks. See work by all members: acrylic paintings by Thron Riggs, Phyllis Taylor and Edward Peterson; photography by Carol Smith; and monotypes by Vicki Baker. Refreshments will be served.

6. KALA

1017 Marine Drive

KALA presents art by three local artists. Tim Liddiard's work explores the experience of color interactions on alternative canvas materials. Kristin Shauck features collaborative paintings, with her images of wild creatures over abstract backgrounds by Liddiard. Zac Caswell creates pieces out of recycled material. A concert will follow after art walk; see page 15.

7. Astoria Art Loft

106 Third St.

Astoria Art Loft will hold an open house from 3 to 6 p.m. featuring Astoria artist Kitty Paino. Paino enjoys acrylic painting in acrylics and creates mixed-media from found materials and washi paper. Other artists will show their work, and refreshments will be served.

ALSO FEATURING ORIGINAL ART

8. Artists Alley at Pier 11

77 11th St.

Find multi-media art, jewelry, paintings and more by local artists.

9. AVA Artist in Residence

80 11th St.

Astoria Visual Arts artist-in-residence Kinzi Gordon will showcase her work.

10. AVA Artist in Residence

1170 Commercial St.

"Cyclops" woodcut print by Peter Nevins at Luminari Arts.

Astoria Visual Arts artist-in-residence Liz Harris will showcase her work.

11. Luminari Arts

1133 Commercial St.

Luminari Arts features two new local artists, live music by Bill Hayes and refreshments. Woodcut artist Peter Nevins is a self-taught printmaker whose work focuses on the emotional life of the imagination. He received a 2011 Grammy nomination for album cover art and has sold work at the Astoria Sunday Market. His work will be on display through Dec. 7. Cannon Beach jeweler Molly Jaber recreates 1970s styles with hammered brass, bronze and silver. She also works with leather, combining it with fresh water pearls for an earthy look. "Living on the Oregon Coast is always an inspiration," she says. "I love to use gemstones and shells that remind me of the sea, the waves, and the mountains."

12. Finn Ware

1116 Commercial St.

Augusta from Nomadic Artistry will demonstrate the art of Sami jewelry. Nomadic Artistry creates Duodji, which encompasses all the handicrafts made by the Sami people, the indigenous people of Scandinavia. Every Duodji has a historic background, whether it's crafted using traditional techniques or ornamented with ancient designs.

13. Forsythea

1124 Commercial St.

Forsythea features new paintings and beaded pieces by Zemula Fleming, wood vessels by Michael Parker and keepsake boxes by Christine Trexel. The shop also has handmade leather journals and purses by Ted Gilmer and Blanket Creek Pottery glazed with a combination of hardwood ash and local surface clays.

14. Bliss the Boutique

1130 Commercial St.

View fun and functional works by Nancy Bosse: glass gargoyles, fused glass wine racks, cheese plates and colorful coasters.

15. Adagio

1174 Commercial St.

On display are antique African masks, vintage Japanese silk haori "wearable art," and Japanese woodblock prints from the Shin-Hanga and Sosaku-Hanga periods.
