

Tickets still available for 'Coastal Harvest of Giving' fundraiser

The Daily Astorian

Tickets are still available for the sixth annual "Coastal Harvest of Giving" fundraiser for the Clatsop Community Action Regional Food Bank.

The fundraiser will be held from 6 to 9:30 p.m. Dec. 10 at the Surfsand Resort Ballroom in Cannon Beach.

Tickets are $150 per person ($100 is tax deductible).

Tickets are on a first come, first served basis and must be paid for in advance. About 50 tickets are still available out of the 160 total for the event.

The dinner presentation will begin at 7 p.m. Chef Bob Neroni, from the Cannon Beach Cooking School, and Chef Josh Archibald, from the Wayfarer Restaurant & Lounge, will be the coordinating chefs during the dinner presentation.

The chefs will present hors d'oeuvres, multiple courses including entrees, accompanying side dishes and desserts. Each course is served with a special wine, paired with the entrée.

Guests will take home a gift packet with all recipes from the evening.

The keynote speaker will be state Rep. Deborah Boone.

For tickets, contact the CCA Regional Food Bank at 503-861-FOOD (3663) or mmartin@ccaservices.org.

Those interested can also contact Clatsop Community Action at 503-325-1400 or ebruce@ccaservices.org.

Cullaby Lake Park in need of caretaker

The Daily Astorian

A caretaker is being sought to help operate and maintain Cullaby Lake County Park from Jan. 1 to April 30.

The caretaker will live on-site in their own fully operable, self-contained recreational vehicle or motorhome for the duration of the contract.

The Clatsop County Parks Department will provide full hook-ups including electric, water, and sewer as well as garbage, local phone service and a $300-per-month stipend.

Expectations of the caretaker include visitor assistance, opening the park's gates by 8 a.m. and close them at dusk, informing visitors of park area rules and regulations and performing minor grounds maintenance.

An application packet is available online at www.co.

clatsop.or.us under the "Jobs & Bids/RFPs" link. A completed packet needs to be submitted by 4 p.m. Dec. 31 to Clatsop County Parks, 1100 Olney Ave., Astoria, Oregon 97103.

Park staff will review packets, contact interested parties and select the successful applicant. Placement is contingent on successfully passing a background check and drug screen.

Service to honor those who served and died at Pearl Harbor

The Daily Astorian

The public is invited to a short service honoring those who served and died at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, Dec. 7, 1941, marking the entry of the United States into World War II.

The memorial begins at 9 a.m. Monday in the Seaside Convention Center lobby. The service will move outside to the Pearl Harbor Memorial Bridge, located adjacent to the convention center, for a wreath-laying ceremony and a possible Coast Guard flyover at 9:55 a.m.

Refreshments will be served after the service. For more information, contact Bill Thomas or Eric Beal at 503-470-0776.

OBITUARIES

Helen H. Alto Raasina Warrenton

Aug. 11, 1916 — Nov. 21, 2015

Helen H. Alto Raasina, 99, a lifelong resident of Seaside and Astoria, was born Aug. 11, 1916, in Seaside, Oregon, to Finnish immigrants, Frank Nestor and Hilma Louisa Alto.

Raised in Seaside, Oregon, Helen was one of four children, and the last remaining sibling. She graduated from Seaside High School in 1934. After high school, Helen lived and worked in Beaver, Oregon, for a short time, working in the mill.

On Aug. 31, 1940, Helen married Bill Raasina, who preceded her in death in 1982. They lived on the Raasina Dairy farm in Olney, providing milk to nearby communities and all of Astoria. Helen designed the milk bottle tab caps that sealed the glass milk bottles in the 1940s, and Bill and his brothers worked the farm and delivered the milk.

They enjoyed dancing in Seaside at the Bungalow Dance Hall in the 1930s and 1940s to the big bands who traveled to Seaside during the war years. In the 1950s, she and her family moved to North Bend, Oregon, living there for about 12 years, as a mother and homemaker, raising her family. The Raasina family returned to live in Astoria in 1964.

Helen moved to San Diego, California, to be near her daughter in 2000, and lived a few places around the city. She eventually missed the Oregon rain, and moved back to spend her last years in Astoria and Seaside. She served as president of the local Degree of Honor society for many years, and enjoyed traveling to Finland with her brother and his wife, visiting relatives.

Helen was active in all her years, loving clam digging, fishing, gardening, tennis, bicycle riding, sewing, and taking up golf at age 70, which she enjoyed with her sister-in-law.

Helen is survived by her daughter, Joy Raasina Smith, and son-in-law, Robert Smith, from San Diego, California, and numerous nieces and nephews. Her oldest daughter, Susie, died in 1971.

A private family graveside service was held in Ocean View Cemetery in Warrenton.

Hughes-Ransom Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. An online guest book may be signed at www.hughes-ransom.com
