Wanted fugitive arrested in Long Beach

EO Media Group

LONG BEACH, Wash. — A wanted fugitive was arrested Thursday afternoon after a standoff in Long Beach.

Matthew Mark Pearson, 30, was arrested based on a Department of Corrections escape warrant and a felony elude warrant, according to Supervisory Deputy Brandon Ratliff of the U.S. Marshals Service.

"We were asked for help by the county to make an arrest on a guy who was causing problems," Ratliff said.

A second man was also arrested during the same incident, though his identity remains unknown.

The arrests followed a standoff lasting more than an hour.

Multiple law enforcement agencies blocked streets around the intersection of Sixth Street and Washington Avenue.

A reporter at the scene observed officers with weapons drawn at the scene of a yellow multi-family dwelling at about 2 p.m.

In addition to the Marshals Service, Long Beach Police Department, Washington State Patrol, Washington State Department of Fish and Wildlife and Pacific County Sheriff's Department officers were involved.

Thursday night, Pearson was in Pacific County Jail in lieu of $50,000 bail. Pearson has been frequently jailed on multiple charges since at least 2003, according to Chinook Observer records.
