

2nd Saturday

ART WALK

Jan.
9
5 to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — Downtown merchants and galleries will hold Astoria's Second Saturday Art Walk from 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 9. Meet artists and mingle with fellow art lovers while enjoying refreshments and new exhibits.

ART BUSINESSES

1. Imogen Gallery

240 11th St.

Creative and dynamic pair Roger Hayes and Sally Lackaff bring their first collaborative exhibition in over a decade to Imogen Gallery in "Clatsop County Waters," inspired by the mighty Columbia River and its estuary. Hayes brings edgy abstract paintings, exploring the nuance of fluidity and refraction of water and showing water's mysterious side. Lackaff focuses her hand and eye on the more literal and delicate, portraying the complex life-giving waterways that both support a habitat for flora and fauna and define and shape our landscape.

A work by Gabriela Helesicova at the Norblad Hotel and Hostel.

2. "Cascadian Slipstream Part 2" at the Carruthers Building

1198 Commercial St.

Astoria artist Darren Orange continues an exploration in reflection and abstraction of the natural environment. "Cascadian Slipstream Part 2: Downstream" is a body of oil paintings created mostly by an intuitive automaton nature, or a surrealist automatism, with subtle references of the Columbia River Gorge and the greater Northwest. The exhibit is an extension of Orange's most recent exhibition, "Cascadian Slipstream," which was on view at the Lower Columbia College in Longview, Washington, in November.

"Fort George Gatepost" by Phyllis Taylor at Tempo Gallery.

3. RiverSea Gallery

1160 Commercial St.

RiverSea has refreshed, revitalized and rejuvenated the gallery with new artwork, enticing displays and a fresh coat of paint to welcome the new year and the return of the light. The Winter Light Sale offers select works by many artists at reduced prices through the end of the month. Enjoy light bites and libations during art walk.

Smith, and monotypes and paintings by Vicki Baker. Refreshments will be served.

5. Laughing Duck Digital Pond

120 10th St., Suite 3

January brings more hand coloring to the walls of Laughing Duck Digital Pond. Poster-size images of dirigibles will be on display as well as photos of pelicans in Astoria taking over the walkway at Big Red. There will be refreshments and good banter for all to enjoy.

A work by Sarah Hendrickson at the Norblad Hotel and Hostel.

The Norblad Hotel and Hostel will be taken over by Astoria artists during art walk, with food served by chef Marco Davis.

"Afterlife" by Stirling Gorsuch at RiverSea Gallery.

6. Astoria Art Loft

106 Third St.

ALSO FEATURING ORIGINAL ART

7. Luminari Arts

1133 Commercial St.

Luminari Arts celebrates the new year with "Private Collection," a show of pre-owned art by various local and national artists curated by Charlotte Bruhn, Dale Clark and Diane Jackson. Works represented include artists Michael deWaide, Brenda Mickelson, Linda Taylor and others. Refreshments will be served.

8. Forsythea

1124 Commercial St.

Find out what's blooming at Forsythea. The shop is celebrating its third anniversary on Commercial Street with a show of works on paper by various artists, including Patricia Fagerland and Dian Schroeder.

9. Bliss the Boutique

1130 Commercial St.

"Greenman," a bronze sculpture by Debbie Roberts at Luminari Arts.

10. Adagio

1174 Commercial St.

On display are antique African masks, vintage Japanese silk haori "wearable art," and Japanese woodblock prints from the Shin-Hanga and Sosaku-Hanga periods.

11. Norblad Hotel and Hostel

443 14th St.

The Norblad is being temporarily taken over by local artists and hooligans in a "Hostel Takeover." Beginning at 7 p.m., a contingent of artists will set up a cavalcade of works throughout the hotel. Food will be provided by chef Marco Davis, rock 'n' roll will be controlled by metalhead DJ John Gentner, and wine, beer and punch will be served. "The Hostel Takeover is a showcase for the community," said Davis. "It's a platform for the creative innovators of the underground — the edgy artists that live and work right here in Astoria."

12. Pacific Pro Realty

207 12th St.

Pacific Pro Realty showcases the artwork of Gary Bilodeaux this month. Born in Boston, Bilodeaux now makes the Northwest his home. An artist from the age of 8, he has worked in many mediums and is currently focused on acrylics. He loves portrait painting and adds vibrancy to the face so that his art pops off the canvas.

SUPPORTING PARTICIPANTS

13. In the Boudoir

1004 Commercial St.

Envelop your senses with fine linens, lotions, soaps and home decor at In the Boudoir.

14. Sea Gypsy Gifts

1001 Commercial St.

Sea Gypsy Gifts showcases local artist Konnie from Naughty But Nice, who creates macrame trees of life with living moss, macrame furniture and more. For 18 years she traveled with an art circuit and has made these living masterpieces for 40 years. Enjoy snacks and refreshments.

15. Cargo

240 11th St.

Warm up with scarves, hats and gloves from around the globe.

16. La Luna Loca

382 12th St.

La Luna Loca features global treasures to adorn the body and home, traveling to meet the artisans who make the traditional crafts and in-house-designed clothing on display. Mexican artisan Miguel Rios offers new leather hand-tooled and hand-painted bags.

RESTAURANT PARTICIPANTS

17. Astoria Coffeehouse & Bistro

243 11th St.

SUBMITTED PHOTOS

The Illahee Apartments

Downtown Astoria's Most Respected Apartment Complex Since 1969.

1046 Grand Avenue
Astoria, OR 97103

503-325-2280

Are you
Waiting for Godot?

Coming soon to the PAC

Golden Whale JEWELRY, INC

If you are looking for something unique, visit the Golden Whale

194 N. Hemlock, Cannon Beach
503.436.1166