

The couple gave kudos to the Surfsand and to local photographer Julie Adams for their service.

“The hotel was beautiful and in a great location, with the beach, Haystack Rock and the dunes,” Dominik said.

Add the opportunity to do some local hiking and shopping, and “the little things just add up,” to round out a wedding weekend, he said. “It’s amazing.”

Although they were married several months ago, they won’t take a honeymoon until June. They will go back to Germany, where their romance began.

“We’re going to do a second reception with Dominik’s big family,” Jamie said. “I’m going to take the dress with me.”

The event definitely will bring back memories of their wedding in Cannon Beach when everything conspired to make some magic.

“It was a perfect weekend,” said Dominik. ■
