Audition for 'The Great Gatsby' in Tillamook

TILLAMOOK — Tillamook Association for the Performing Arts announces open auditions for the popular play "The Great Gatsby," written by F. Scott Fitzgerald, adapted for the stage by Simon Levy, and directed by Steele Fleisher.

Fitzgerald's classic story is a trip back to prohibition America, the roaring 1920s and the shallowness of the nouveau-rich. The stage version faithfully follows the well-known novel, about the young and mysterious millionaire Jay Gatsby and his quixotic passion and obsession for the beautiful, rich former debutante Daisy Buchanan. Her cousin, Nick, is drawn into the captivating world of the wealthy, bears witness to their deceits, and pens the audience a tale of impossible love, dreams and tragedy.

TAPA is looking for up to nine men and four women, ranging in age from mid-20s to mid-40s. No previous experience is necessary.

Auditions will be held at Tillamook United Methodist Church, located at 3808 12th St., at 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 30 and 31. Performances will run May 6 to 21.

Auditions packets are available at www.tillamook-theater.com, at the Tillamook County Library, or by emailing info@tillamooktheater.com.

TAPA is a nonprofit community theater dedicated to providing performing arts experiences through entertainment, education and community participation.

String players wanted for local symphony

North Oregon Coast Symphony rehearses Tuesday evenings

CANNON BEACH — Do you play violin, viola, cello or bass? The North Oregon Coast Symphony is looking for string players to join the musical group.

The symphony is a local nonprofit organization of volunteer musicians dedicated to providing live classical music to the North Coast.

Musicians come from a 100-mile span of the North Oregon and southwest Washington coast to rehearse and create live classical music for the community.

The age range is from high school to adult, and members' ability ranges from proficient to professional.

A new concert season is now underway, and rehearsals began Jan. 26. They are held from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Tuesdays at Cannon Beach Community Church, located at 132 E. Washington St.

Rehearsals take place in a friendly and supportive environment, with an emphasis on enjoying the process of creating music.

To learn more about the symphony, contact conductor Cory Pederson at 503-836-2198 or email nocscory@gmail.com, or visit www.northoregoncoastsymphony.org
