

POINT of view

'How do you feel about raising the minimum wage?'

"I think a lot of people are going to get laid off. And, there won't be any previously held jobs on resumés — that section will be blank because it will be so hard to get that first job. Companies will be very picky."
Terry Leong, Astoria

"I think it's great for minimum wage earners, but tough for business owners."
Jake Martin, Astoria

"I feel it's good. It's about time."

Woman gets life in prison after son thrown from bridge

By STEVEN DUBOIS
 Associated Press

PORTLAND — A woman who threw her autistic 6-year-old son off a bridge on the Oregon Coast has pleaded guilty to murder and was sentenced to life in prison with the possibility of parole in 25 years.

Jillian McCabe, 36, of Newport called 911 in 2014 to report she had thrown her son from the Yaquina Bay Bridge, an arch bridge that rises 133 feet above the water.

Emergency crews searched for hours before the body of London McCabe was found about a mile from the span. Hundreds of people attended a candlelight vigil for the child.

"The fall did not kill London," Lincoln County District Attorney Michelle Branam said Tuesday. "He suffered broken bones from the impact of the fall and ultimately drowned."

After her arrest, relatives said McCabe struggled with mental illness while trying to care for London and for her husband, Matt McCabe, who was ailing from multiple sclerosis.

But Branam said the killing was done with much calculation, and prosecutors believe she faked symptoms of mental illness when it suited her purpose.

"Everyone hopes it can be explained by way of mental illness so we don't have to leave open the possibility that a mother could plan to so horrifically murder her child," Branam said.

In the weeks before killing her son, McCabe did extensive Internet research on ways to murder the child, and how to get away with it by using an insanity defense.

Anthony Thorne Knappa

July 24, 1968 — Feb. 18, 2016

Tony Thorne was born on July 24, 1968, in Torrance, California, to Jan and Linda Thorne. Shortly after, they moved back to Jan's hometown of Nehalem, Oregon, where he lived until shortly after graduating from Neah-Kah-Nie High School in 1986.

Tony worked as a dairy farmer a little before starting his lifelong career as a logger with Gustafson Logging, where he worked his way up through all the different jobs in a logging outfit. After some years he left and went to work briefly for Bighorn Logging, and then onto his dream job as a faller with O'Brien Timber Falling, where he worked for 22 years.

Tony loved working and playing outdoors, but more than that he loved family. He was always doing things with his children and grandchildren; they were his greatest love of all. On the morning of Feb. 18, 2016, he was taken from us much too soon in an accident while cutting near Elsie, Oregon.

Tony was an amazing father, son, brother, grandpa, uncle, friend and timber faller. Truly considered one of the best by his peers. He is survived by his mother, Linda; brother, James; children, Elizabeth, CJ and Joey; and grandchildren, Kairi and Quinn. Where there walks a logger, there walks a man.

The funeral will be Saturday, Feb. 27, at 10 a.m. at the American Legion Cemetery, located at 10755 Necarney City Road, Nehalem, Oregon 97131. Following will be a celebration of life at the Astoria Elks Lodge, located at 453 11th St., Astoria, Oregon 97103, from 1 to 5 p.m. All are in invited to attend both services.

Caldwell's Funeral & Cremation Arrangement Center in Seaside is in charge of the arrangements. An online guest book is available at www.caldwellsmortuary.com
