

A Sweet Affaire brings sweet treats and more

SEASIDE — Seaside's A Sweet Affaire has transformed from a chocolate and wine event associated with Valentine's Day to a more expansive celebration of sweet delights. A Sweet Affaire features an increasing representation of appetizers, desserts and auction items from Iron Chef Goes Coastal winners and participants and Coast Weekend favorite restaurants of 2015.

Past participants are returning Sunday, March 6, from 2 to 4:30 p.m., to serve their signature small bites, tempting treats, wines, local brews and non-alcoholic beverages. Local chefs, restaurateurs, vintners and brewers who have prepared and donated the afternoon's appetizers, desserts and beverages will be on hand at the Seaside Convention Center.

Pianist Lynn Archibald will provide music for the event. The silent and live auctions include activities within and outside the local area, donated by merchants and individuals. Two items back by popular demand are A Day at the State Capitol, hosted by Rep. Deborah Boone, and Dinner for Six prepared in your home by chef Jonathan Hoffman, a two-time winner of Iron Chef Goes Coastal.

A Sweet Affaire is jointly sponsored by the Sunset Park and Recreation Foundation and the Seaside Rotary Foundation. Proceeds provide scholarships to children youth, and adults to enable them to participate in the array of positive lifestyle activities provided by the Sunset Empire Park and Recreation District. Rotary proceeds fund many school and community projects.

Tickets for A Sweet Affaire, an event for adults, are $35 and may be purchased at U.S. Bank, Sunset Pool, the Bob Chisholm Community Center or at www.sunsetempire.com.

Auction items may be previewed at www.Facebook.com/asweetaffaire
