Marjorie 'Margie' Aho

Svensen

May 1, 1930 — March 5, 2016

Marjorie "Margie" Aho, 85, of Svensen, passed away on Saturday, March 5, 2016, in Astoria.

She was born May 1, 1930, to William C. and Rosie (Olson) Johnson. She attended Knappa Schools and graduated in 1948.

She married her high school sweetheart and the love of her life, Marshall Aho, in 1950. He preceded her in death in 2006.

Margie lived most of her life in the Knappa/Svensen area, except for a few years that she lived in Rockaway Beach, Oregon.

For most of her life she was a loving wife and mother, and was employed at Grove's Poultry Processing and was a waitress at the Svensen Cafe.

She and Marshall loved to travel, making lots of short trips to the Oregon Coast to look for seashells and agates, sightseeing in the Northwest, or going to Reno with family and friends. She enjoyed cooking, baking and collecting Santa Claus figurines.

She loved most of all sports, watching her grandchildren play softball and basketball and following the Loggers on their many trips to the state tournament in Pendleton. Later in life, Margie loved her weekly visits to the "Pig" restaurant for biscuits and gravy, "Thank you so much girls!"

She will be missed dearly by all who knew her. She loved her kids, grandkids and great-grandkids with all her heart, and her little pug, Missy. The family would like to extend a special thank you to the Croos family — you are a very special family — and the ER and Med-Surg staff at Columbia Memorial Hospital for their compassionate care.

Margie was preceded in death by her parents; husband; brothers, Bill, Wally, Bud; sister, Rose Marie Oja; and brother-in-law, Dick Hempstead.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Marsha and Rusty Donaldson; son and daughter-in-law, Jack and Joyce Aho; grandson, Kurt Donaldson; granddaughter, Shannon Aho Lackey (Kenny); great-granddaughters, Miriam Donaldson and Zoey Lackey; brother, Corkey Johnson; sister, Marlene Hempstead; and sisters-in-law, Ellen Tweet, Betty Aho Bagley and llene Johnson.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the Knappa Schools Foundation, 42915 Highway 30, Astoria, OR 97103, or to a charity of one's choice.

Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary is in charge of the arrangements. A viewing will be on Thursday, March 10, from 3 to 5 p.m. At Margie's request there will be no service.

Treva Mae Haskell

Cannon Beach

Nov. 26, 1932 — March 1, 2016

On March 1, 2016, Treva Mae Haskell of Cannon Beach passed away peacefully after a long battle with cancer. Treva is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Sue and Mark Truax of Gearhart; son and daughter-in-law, David and Leslie Haskell of Astoria; granddaughters and grandsons-in-law, Kelli and Brian Taylor of Cannon Beach, Toni and Justin Bennett of Gearhart and Shelby and Justin Gagnon of Portland; grandson, Kyle Truax of Seaside; granddaughter, Bailey Haskell of Astoria; and great-grandchildren, Lilli and Aubrie Taylor and Derrick, Ellie and Braxton Bennett. Treva was preceded in death by her mother and father, Cecile and Hollis Harp, and her husband, Bruce Haskell.

Treva Mae Haskell

Treva Mae Haskell was born Nov. 26, 1932, in Winfield, Kansas, to Cecile and Hollis Harp. She spent her childhood playing with her cousins on the family's oil lease, playing in the local pond, and learning how to sew. Treva often reflected back on growing up in the Great Depression, remembering that she never knew her family was poor because everyone else was, too. At an early age, she had a deep desire to travel, but her parents were homebodies. She would joke that she was switched at birth, and must have been born to gypsies, because she wanted to see the world so much.

She loved school and learning. She graduated from Winfield High School in 1950, and attended one year at a business school, studying secretarial duties. It was after a year of college that Treva began her adventures, when she moved to Seattle, Washington, with a girlfriend. She was employed at an insurance office, and loved exploring the big city. It was at work one day when she met the love of her life, Bruce Haskell, while having lunch in his family's restaurant in the same building as her office. Treva and Bruce married Sept. 14, 1956. They resided in West Seattle, enjoyed boat racing, and had a lot of fun together. In 1960, Treva gave birth to their first child, Susan. Looking for a change of pace, the family of three moved to Cannon Beach. They began a new adventure in hotel ownership when they purchased the Surfview Hotel with Dorothy and Gordon McRae. During this time, Treva and Bruce welcomed their second child, David. Treva enjoyed meeting the guests who stayed at the hotel, but shortly realized that hotel ownership wasn't for them. So, Bruce and she searched for their next adventure.

At this time in Cannon Beach, Krutchkies Candy Store and The Driftwood restaurant were for sale. Bruce had worked in the restaurant business for many years and wanted to do something new, so they bought the candy store! The doors to Bruce's Candy Kitchen opened April 1, 1963. This is where Treva would spend the next several decades creating homemade confections, thousands of sweet memories, and building a family business that would become an institution in Cannon Beach.

When not working at the family business, Treva and Bruce enjoyed bowling, going to movies, socializing with friends and visiting their favorite establishments around town, The Whaler and Driftwood, for music and good times. Treva enjoyed working hard and playing hard, too!

In 1982, Treva lost the love of her life; her husband Bruce passed away from cancer. Devastated but not deterred, she kept the family business going with the help of her children and dedicated employee, Paulette Picard. Treva worked until her retirement in the early 1990s, when she slowly stepped out of her role in the family business and passed the candy reigns to the next generation.

On April 1, 2016, Bruce's Candy Kitchen will celebrate 53 years in business, the decades of success are owed to Treva's hard work and determination. On April 1, 2013, she proudly joined her family and community at the candy store's 50th anniversary, that will go down in history as one of the best parties in Cannon Beach!

"I am not the same having seen the moon shine from the other side of the world." — Mary Anne Radmacher.

As a young child growing up in Kansas, Treva dreamed of traveling the world, seeing new places and learning new things — this dream became reality. With her children, husband and friends, she traveled to Hawaii, Disneyland, Washington and Kansas, but later in life is when her real adventures began. In 1984, she made her first voyage out of the country to China. After this trip she was officially "bit by the travel bug" and in her lifetime visited over 15 countries on four continents. Treva had a great time... Everywhere!

Throughout her life, Treva was involved in many philanthropic groups and activities. In her children's youth, she was a proud member of the Cannon Beach PTO Rally Girls and SHS boosters. Later in life, she held positions on the Cannon Beach Chamber Board, Cannon Beach First District Board, and supported a variety of local events.

Treva had a great passion and talent for sewing, knitting and cross-stitching. She also enjoyed reading mystery novels, attending the local theatre and being a committed, loyal friend to many Cannon Beach natives, such as Sally Steidel, with whom she'd sip coffee, grab lunch or continue to build her passport.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you support one of these causes deep to Treva's heart: SMART reading program and/or the Clatsop County Animal Shelter. In support of SMART, please send memorial gifts to SMART, 101 S.W. Market St., Portland OR 97201, writing "In memory of Treva Haskell/Clatsop County SMART" in the memo section of check; or to the Clatsop County Animal Shelter, 1315 S.E. 19th St., Warrenton, OR 97146.

A celebration of her adventurous life will be held Wednesday, March 9, with a service at Seaside Episcopal Church, 503 N. Holladay Drive, Seaside, Oregon, at 1 p.m. followed by a reception from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Driftwood Restaurant at 179 N. Hemlock St., Cannon Beach, OR 97110.

Hughes-Ransom Mortuary & Crematory in Seaside is in charge of arrangements. Visit www.hughes-ransom.com to share memories and sign the guest book.

Mark E. Christie

Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Oct. 9, 1944 — Feb. 3, 2016

Mark E. Christie, born to Dan and Eleanor Christie on Oct. 9, 1944, in Brunswick, Maine, passed away in New Orleans, Louisiana, on Feb. 3, 2016.

Mark earned his bachelor's degree at Bowdoin College in Maine, and his master's degree in mathematics at the University of Oregon in Eugene. While a graduate student, he taught part-time with Oregon Project NewGate at the Oregon State Penitentiary.

He accepted a teaching position at Clatsop Community College in Astoria, Oregon, in 1971, where he taught math at various levels until 1981. In May 1973 he married Mary Cay Kinney, and together they shared a love of books, baseball and cards. From 1977 to 1981, Mark served on the Astoria City Council. While in Astoria he enjoyed sport fishing for salmon and sturgeon.

After a brief move to Maine, Mark and Mary Cay settled in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in 1982. He taught mathematics at LSU until he retired in 2007. He was known as a gifted teacher with a unique ability to help anyone grasp math. He enjoyed LSU Tiger sports and NFL games.

Mark was preceded in death by Mary Cay in 2011, and his stepson Randy Kinney of Astoria. He is survived by his stepchildren Paula Kinney Bue, Kevin Kinney and Steven Kinney of Astoria, as well as his daughter from his first marriage, Amanda Murphy of Bend, Oregon.

At Mark's request, there will not be a memorial service. Remember, it's all about the numbers.
