13. Adagio

1174 Commercial St.

This month at Adagio, the Clatsop Community College Basic Design class taught by instructor Kristin Shauck will be presenting an exhibit of artwork constructed of materials that are primarily salvaged from the waste stream. This project is designed to promote environmental stewardship while exploring the intersection between art and the environment. Come and be inspired by the talent and messages of these dedicated student artists.

14. La Luna Loca

382 12 St.

La Luna Loca features global treasures to adorn the body and home, traveling to meet the artisans who make the traditional crafts and in-house-designed clothing on display. This month, discover the wares of Tumbled 'n' Twisted Jewelry. Using recycled glass, natural stones, recycled metals and an organic aesthetic, Oregon native Lisa makes each piece by hand. Her work reflects the luminous colors, shapes and textures of nature with an emphasis on refracted light.

15. Sea Gypsy Gifts

1001 Commercial St.

Find new garden art: mosaic stepping stones and stained glass windchimes from Cass Mullins, upcycled garden decor from the SE=ea Gypsy herself, and new mermaid watercolor paintings by Andrew Traphagen. Enjoy refreshments and 10 percent off purchases.
