OBITUARIES

Mary 'Shannon' Fitzpatrick

Seaside

Jan. 29, 1950 — March 7, 2016

Shannon Fitzpatrick, 66, of Seaside, Oregon, passed away in Portland, Oregon, on the morning of March 7, 2016, due to complications brought on by chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.

Shannon was born in Portland, Oregon, on Jan. 29, 1950, to James and Billie Fitzpatrick. She is survived by her sisters, Barbara Gallant of Seaside, Oregon, and Colleen Fitzpatrick of Salem, Oregon; daughters, Katie Erickson of Seattle, Washington, and Colleen Meiser of Seaside, Oregon; and grandsons, Beaux Bordelon and Roscoe Rose of Seaside, Oregon.

Mary "Shannon" Fitzpatrick

The family would like you to join them in an informal reception to be held at The Relief Pitcher, 2795 S. Roosevelt Drive, Seaside, Oregon, on Sunday, March 27, at 4 p.m., where they encourage you to share fond memories and anecdotes. Let's celebrate Shannon's life and let the good times roll!

A candy-colored clown they call the sandman
Tiptoes to my room every night
Just to sprinkle stardust and to whisper
"Go to sleep. Everything is all right."
I close my eyes, then I drift away
Into the magic night. I softly say
A silent prayer like dreamers do.
Then I fall asleep to dream my dreams of you.
— Roy Orbison, "In Dreams"

Winifred Jean Olson

Albany

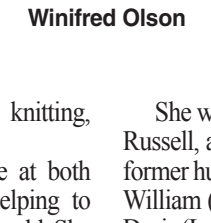
Dec. 26, 1931 — Feb. 6, 2016

Winifred Jean Olson, 84, a former Astoria resident, passed away at home in Albany, Oregon, on Feb. 6, 2016, at age 84. She was born Dec. 26, 1931, in Burns, Oregon, to William and Norma (Cook) Schuster. The family later moved to Ashland, where Wini graduated from high school in 1949.

Wini received her registered nurse's training at Emanuel Hospital in Portland. It was there she met Curtis Olson, who was recovering from a broken arm. They married on May 2, 1953, making their home in Astoria. Three children followed: Marilyn, Keith and Roxanne. Wini's youngest sister, Doris, lived with them for several years as well. Astoria interests included membership in Betas, reading, listening to music, cooking and baking, sewing, knitting, crafts and camping.

Wini worked as an obstetrics nurse at both Columbia and St. Mary's hospitals, helping to bring many Astoria area babies into the world. She later joined Clatsop County Health Department as a family planning specialist, later becoming a women's health care nurse practitioner.

With a strong desire to see the world, in 1981 Wini took her nursing skills to Saudi Arabia, where she spent seven years in the western city of Taif (famous for its roses). Wini enjoyed many adventures, took up scuba diving, delighted in learning about new cultures, made many friends, and traveled extensively. Two favorite destinations were Sri Lanka and Hungary.



Winifred Olson

Returning to the U.S., Wini moved to Southern California, where she worked as a nurse practitioner for Los Angeles County and earned her bachelor of science degree in nursing from California State University, Long Beach. Ready for more adventures, she returned to Saudi Arabia, this time to King Faisal Hospital in Riyadh. She was there during the first Gulf War, when Scud missiles were falling on the city. Retiring at 65, Wini returned to the U.S., living first in Medford, Oregon, then Goodyear, Arizona, and in 2009, she moved to Albany.

She was predeceased by her parents, infant son Russell, and sister Audrey. She is survived by her former husband, Curtis Olson of Astoria; a brother, William (Diane) of Shady Cove, Oregon; a sister, Doris (Larry) McLean of Madras, Oregon; and her three children, Marilyn (David) Mears of Seattle, Keith (Shirley) Olson of Seaside, and Roxanne (Serge) Boen of Albany. She is also survived by three grandsons: Abraham Diekhans-Mears, Robert Olson and August Mears.

A celebration of life is to be held in Astoria at a later date. Details to follow.
