

Lumberjacks chop out a win over Fishermen

The Daily Astorian

It's tough to go from basketball to baseball in just four days, as the Astoria Fishermen showed Wednesday afternoon.

In Astoria's 2016 season opener at CMH Field, the visiting R.A. Long Lumberjacks from Longview, Washington, scored a run in the fourth to tie the game and another in the eighth to win, 2-1.

Four R.A. Long pitchers combined for 12 strikeouts and four walks, and limited Astoria to just four singles in the nonleague contest.

Pitching on both sides was solid, as Fishermen starter Carter Wallace retired the first 11 batters he faced; and Tyler Lyngstad worked his way out of a jam in the top of the sixth.

The Lumberjacks had runners at first and third with no outs, and Lyngstad got two ground-outs and a pop-up to get out of the inning.

The Fishermen also played well defensively, but stranded seven base runners and managed just one run in the third.

A two-out single by Olaf Englund scored Trey Hageman from second for Astoria's lone run and a 1-0 lead.

R.A. Long's Drew Walling had a two-out double in the top of the fourth and scored on a single, and it was Walling who drove in the go-ahead run in the eighth with another double that brought in Gunnar Blix.

Englund and Hageman each had two singles for Astoria; while Wallace, Lyngstad and Fridtjof Fremstad allowed four hits with four strikeouts and no walks. Astoria plays Friday at Dallas.

three runs in the bottom of the seventh, but came up a run short Wednesday night at Broadway Field, where Molalla posted a 4-3 win over the Gulls in a nonleague baseball season opener.

Jake Bassett was 2-for-3 with a triple and a run scored for Seaside, which hosts its annual tournament Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Warriors 14, Nestucca 1

CLOVERDALE — Warrenton pitchers Dalton Knight and Joe Little held Nestucca to just three hits (with no walks), while the Warriors collected 14 hits in a 14-1 nonleague win.

Knight, a freshman, started and struck out five, while Little pitched the fourth and fifth innings and struck out three.

Offensively, Anthony Cochran and Gavon McFadden had three hits apiece for the Warriors, while Derek Ham and Hunter Wilson collected two each.

WARRENTON — Warrenton jumped out to an 8-0 lead after just two innings, on its way to a 10-1 win over Nestucca Wednesday in a nonleague softball game on the Warriors' home field.

The Warriors had five hits, while Warrenton pitchers Claire Bussert and Landree Miethe limited the Bobcats to just three, with seven strikeouts and three walks.

Miethe had three hits and Kiley Holdiman had the other two for the Warriors, who took advantage of 11 walks.
