

Loggers pick up where they left off

By GARY HENLEY
The Daily Astorian

The defending state champion Knappa Loggers showed that — despite the loss of some key seniors — they are still the team in charge of Class 2A baseball.

Hosting the Reedsport Braves — considered to be one of the best teams at the 2A level — the Loggers ran their win streak to 29 in a row with a two-game sweep over the Braves, 3-2 and 11-0, Friday and Saturday at CMH Field.

Following Knappa's 3-2, eight-inning win Friday, the same two teams played a single game Saturday, with the No. 1-ranked Loggers winning in five innings.

And Knappa jumped all over Reedsport's Griffin Kaufmann — a second-team all-state pitcher last season — with seven runs in the first inning.

Junior Jason Miller had a single on the first pitch of the game, and the Loggers poured it on from there.

Kaufmann — the co-MVP of the Sunset

Conference — did not even make it out of the first inning, as eight of the nine players in the Knappa lineup finished with hits.

Sophomore Mason Hoover was 3-for-3 with three runs scored; junior Andrew Goozee was 2-for-2 and drove in three runs; Miller had two hits and three RBIs; and sophomore Dale Takalo added a double.

On the mound, junior pitcher Michal Goodman gave up just one hit over five innings, with one walk and four strikeouts. The only hit was an infield single, and Goodman did not allow a single ball to the outfield.

"Michal was the real story," Knappa coach Jeff Miller said. "He had a couple five-pitch and six-pitch innings, and our outfielders didn't have to make a single play."

Loggers 3, Reedsport 2

In Friday's win, the Loggers only had five hits off two Reedsport pitchers, but Knappa took advantage of a defensive meltdown by the Braves in the late innings.

Gulls golf team finishes fifth at The Dalles Invitational

The Daily Astorian

THE DALLES — The Seaside boys golf team opened the season with a fifth-place team finish at The Dalles Invitational Friday.

The Gulls shot a 391 in the 10-team tournament at The Dalles Country Club. Clackamas took the team title with a 337, followed by Pendleton (341), The Dalles (343) and Hermiston (373).

Aaron Richardson led Seaside with an 82 for the defending state champion Gulls. Jackson Kunde shot 94, followed by Josef Barbic (101) and Berkley Posalski (110).

"While our score was a little higher than I expected, we still managed to beat all the 4A schools that were here and a few of the bigger schools, as well," said Seaside coach Jim Poetsch. "Aaron did not play his best, but managed to finish in a tie for seventh place. He should be around the top of the leaderboard in every tournament we play this year. This course will point out any flaws in your game, so we are going to use today as a learning tool as we prepare for the rest of the season."
