

Lady Fishermen win fourth straight game

A 5-4 win over Corbett Monday is just another sign that things are improving for the Astoria softball program.

The Lady Fishermen — currently ranked No. 2 in the latest OSAA rankings — won their fifth game of the season in the nonleague contest at CMH Field, nearly one year to the day that Corbett defeated Astoria, 9-4.

Astoria improves to 5-1 overall — just one victory away from their win total of 2015, when the Fishermen finished 6-19.

The Lady Fish held a 5-1 lead through six innings, then overcame three errors in a three-run seventh inning for the Cardinals, who had the tying run at second base when the final out was recorded.

The victory was also the fourth in a row for Astoria — the first time since 2009 that the Lady Fish have won four straight (Astoria won five in a row in '09).

Astoria plays a single game at North Marion Wednesday.

After Corbett scored a run in the top of the first, Astoria answered with a two-out double by Libby DiBartolomeo in the bottom of the inning. An error moments later allowed DiBartolomeo to score the tying run.

Hannah Merrill gave up a bases-loaded walk, and a second run scored on a wild pitch. A ground ball by DiBartolomeo scored Sarah Lertora for a 4-1 lead.

The Lady Fish tacked on what turned out to be a much-needed run in the fifth, as DiBartolomeo reached on an infield single and took second on an error, then scored on Mykka Abrahams' double to left-center field.

Kara Moritz took the loss for the Cardinals, despite striking out seven with one walk.

Nicole Herge had a lead-off triple for the Cardinals in the third, but DiBartolomeo struck out three in a row to end the inning; she retired three straight after a lead-off single in the fourth; and retired the side in order in the fifth and sixth innings.

The hard-throwing right-hander scattered seven hits, with one walk and eight strikeouts to pick up the win.

Meanwhile, the Fishermen took advantage of a Corbett pitching change in the second inning, as starter Abigail Fritz left with a foot injury.

Astoria's Kelsey Wullger catches a throw at first to get the Corbett runner out in the seventh inning.
