

Long Beach Peninsula displays a treasure trove of art

LONG BEACH, WASH. — Peninsula Arts Association members have been spending stormy winter days preparing colorful gems for the 25th annual Spring Art Show in Long Beach, Friday-Sunday, April 1-3.

Jewels of stained glass, colorful paintings, a bounty of photographs and pottery and a dazzling arrays of jewelry comprise a portion of the items on display and for sale during the show.

The art show, which is free to attend, will be held in the Old Long Beach Train Depot located at 3rd North St. and Pacific Highway, and the PAA office building next door will be the site of the PAA Inspired Creations.

Visitors are encouraged to vote for their favorite work in the show to determine the top five winners of People's Choice Award. Additionally, visitors can purchase raffle tickets to win an original piece of art by Artist Don Nisbett.

Join local artists at the Artists Reception from 3 to 4 p.m. Sunday, April 3, at the Depot building. The People's Choice awards winners will be announced and the winner of the raffle drawing takes place at that time, too.

All proceeds from the raffle benefit PAA's High School Graduate Scholarship or Art Enrichment programs. PAA is a registered Washington State 501(c)3 nonprofit organization.

All art in the show is for sale as well.
