

Lyngstad, Fremstad shut down Klamath Union

By GARY HENLEY

The Astoria Fishermen bounced back from a Friday loss to Estacada with an 8-0 win over Klamath Union Saturday afternoon, in nonleague baseball action at Aiken Field.

Astoria had the bats working under sunny skies at Tapiola Park, while Fishermen pitchers Tyler Lyngstad and Fridtjof Fremstad totally shut down the Pelicans, who lost their fourth straight.

Lyngstad started and pitched six solid innings, allowing just one hit, with seven strikeouts and one walk.

After giving up a first-inning single to Klamath's Noah Huffman, Lyngstad retired the next eight in a row. He gave up his lone walk in the fourth, but then retired nine of the final 10 batters he faced.

Astoria's Kyle Strange had a leadoff single in the first and scored on a grounder by Fremstad for the game's first run.

The Fishermen tacked on two runs in the third, highlighted by another leadoff single from Strange, who scored on a double by Ole Englund.

Strange walked to lead off the fourth inning and scored on a double by Fremstad; and after a pitching change, Englund reached base on an infield hit, Fremstad scored on a single to right by Carter Wallace, and Lyngstad's sacrifice bunt later in the inning brought in Englund.

Lyngstad helped his cause with another run-scoring single in the sixth inning, as Englund crossed the plate for the third time.

Estacada 5, Astoria 3

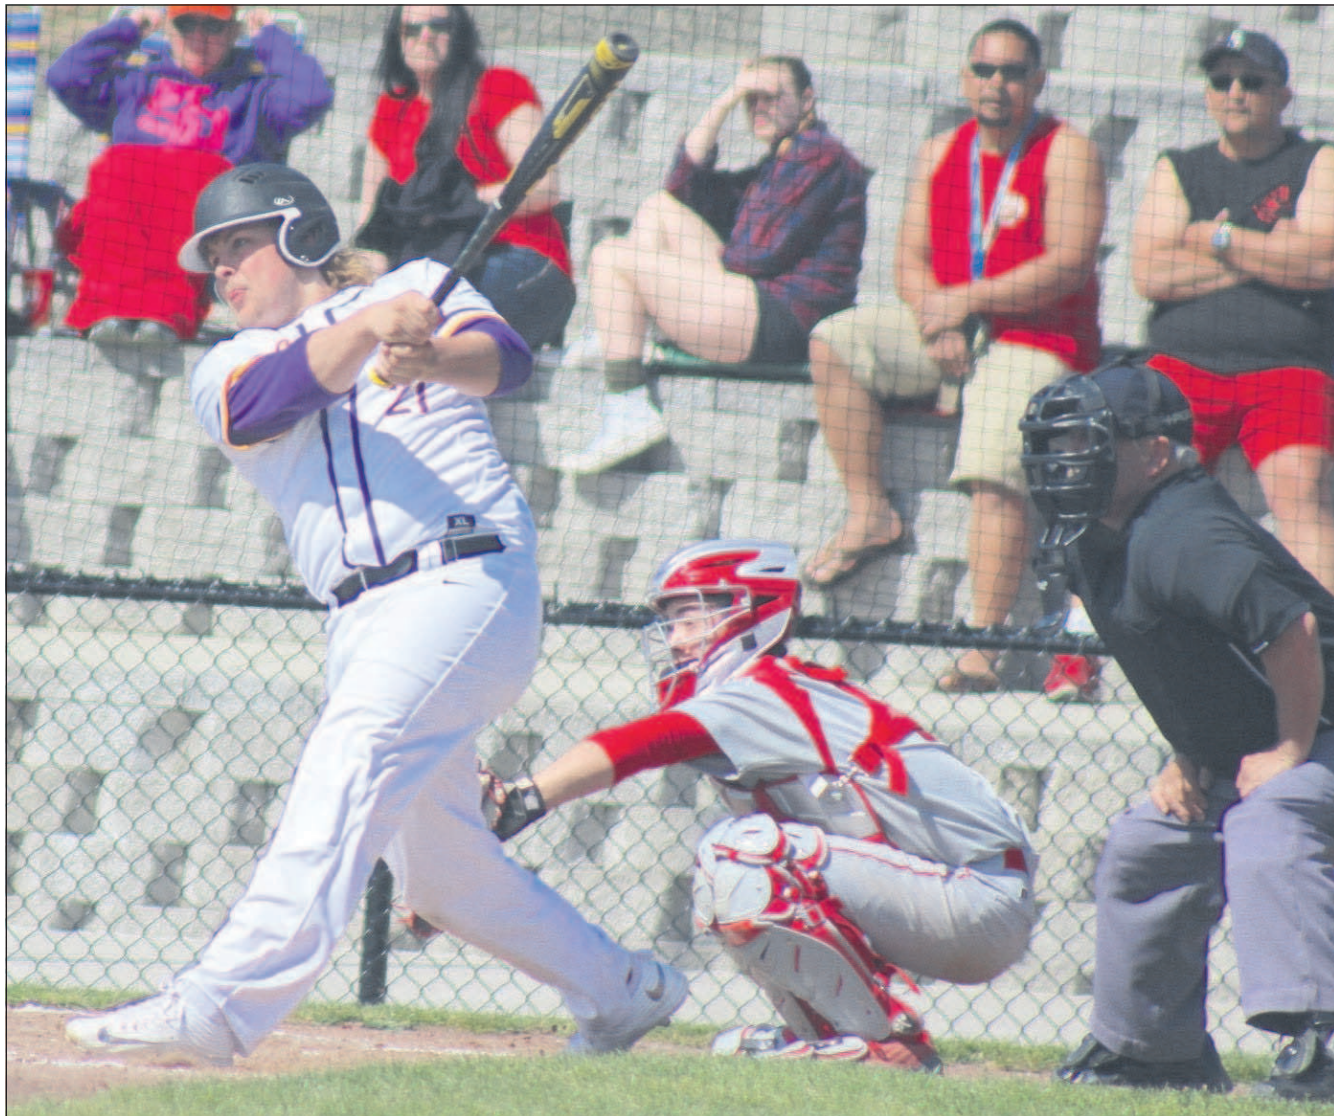

The Fishermen opened the weekend with a nonleague game against Estacada, Friday at Aiken Field.

And the visiting Rangers managed to hold off Astoria's late rally for a 5-3 win.

Astoria starter Jackson Arnsdorf gave up just two hits in three innings pitched, but Estacada scored twice in the second inning, then tacked on single runs in the third, fifth and seventh innings.

The Fishermen staged a rally in the bottom of the seventh, as Ryker Helmerson led off with a single and took third on a double by Ryan Palek, and both scored on a two-out double by Kyle Strange, who later came home on a single by Fridtjof Fremstad.

Estacada pitcher Andy Avants threw 115 pitches and went the distance, allowing seven hits with 10 strikeouts and one walk in the victory.
