

Members of the North Coast Trail Alliance work together to clean up Astoria forest

The Daily Astorian

On Sunday, a local group of mountain bike riders, the North Coast Trail Alliance (NCTA) came together to clean up garbage and debris around the forest roads in the "Pipeline" area, which is currently owned by the Oregon Department of Forestry (ODF).

Two Seaside High School students, Taylor Barnes and Hunter Thompson also showed up to pitch in.

The NCTA will be working with ODF to flag and build trails in the area. The goal is to build fun and exciting trails, and to make this area a destination for mountain bike travelers and locals alike.

The group worked with Mark Kalar of Recology Western Oregon, and a 20-yard dumpster was donated and hauled up to a central location, where it acted as a home base for the volunteers, who drove their trucks out into the various spur roads of the forest system to gather trash. Within a few hours, the entire dumpster was full of everything from dishwashers and couches, to vehicle transmissions and several bags of garbage.

The Rusty Cup donated coffee to get the group going in the morning, and Fort George Brewing was there with beer when the work was finished. "It's awesome what a group of energetic, inspired people can accomplish," Morgan Soller, president of the NCTA, noted on Facebook. "(It's a) huge step towards shredding (mountain bike trails) at home. Good job, crew!"

WARRENTON — The ninth annual Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific's Golf Ball Drop is May 7 at the Astoria Golf and Country Club, 33445 Sunset Beach Road in Warrenton. A free kids' golf ball clinic and barbecue begins at 11 a.m.; the helicopter drop takes place at 12:15 p.m.

The barbecue is $5 per person, and kids younger than 5 eat for free. There is a bicycle and gift raffle at the event; tickets are $1 each, or six for $5, for a chance to win a bike or other gift items. A bake sale features pies, cakes, cookies and more.

Tickets to participate in the helicopter golf ball drop, with chances to win prizes from many area businesses, must be purchased in advance, and are on sale now at Holly McHone Jewelry in Astoria and from Assistance League Members.

Only 2,000 tickets are being sold. Each ticket number is put on a golf ball and dropped from the helicopter.

Golf balls that land closest to the pin win a prize. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Proceeds from the event go directly to Assistance League's Operation School Bell to purchase new clothes for the school year. Purchasing 20 tickets dresses one Clatsop County child.

This year's Golf Ball Drop sponsors are Pacific Power, U.S. Bank, Columbia River Bar Pilots, Lektro, Astoria Golf and Country Club, NW Natural Gas, ReMax River & Sea, Seaside Temps and state Sen. Betsy Johnson.
