

OBITUARIES

John Alan 'Pete' Raitanen

Ketchikan, Alaska

Jan. 11, 1945 — March 20, 2016

John Alan (Pete) Raitanen, 71, was born Jan. 11, 1945, in Astoria, Oregon, to Edwin John and Mary Frances Jorgusen Raitanen. He died March 20, 2016, at his childhood home in Seaside, Oregon, following a long battle with cancer.

Pete graduated from Seaside High School in 1963, and worked many years at the Crab Broiler restaurant to help put himself through college. He attended Clatsop Community College and Oregon State University, graduating with a degree in chemical engineering.

In 1968 he married Linda Schlappi, and they moved to Ketchikan, Alaska, immediately following college graduation in 1969. Pete started working as a chemical engineer in the lab of the Ketchikan Pulp Mill, where he continued working at various positions in the mill until 1998, over a year after the mill closed.

After retirement, he and Linda traveled to visit family and friends and to see more of the world. Highlights were a trip to New Zealand, and several cruises to tropical destinations. Trips to Florida to visit longtime friends Dave and Louis Weis, and trips to Port Aransas, Texas, with children and grandchildren, were also memorable.

Pete enjoyed boating, fishing, clamming, crabbing and making firewood. He also enjoyed cooking and spending time with his grandchildren. He could cook without a recipe, tell children's stories as he made them up and play the saxophone and piano by ear.

He is survived by his wife, Linda, of Ketchikan; daughter, Kristin St. Pierre (Simon) of San Antonio, Texas; son, Eric Raitanen (Karen) of Grand Rapids, Minnesota; grandchildren, Grant, Cameron and Addison of San Antonio and Lauren, Griffin and Anna of Grand Rapids; sisters, Jean Dennon (Jack) and Joanne Erickson (Allan) of Seaside, and their children, Alex, Amanda and Anne Dennon and Julie and Liisa Erickson; and many cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ed and Mary; nephew Andrew Dennon; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

Patricia Leigh Adams

West Bend, Wisconsin

Aug. 16, 1979 — March 31, 2016

Patricia Leigh Adams, 36, of West Bend, Wisconsin, formerly of Svensen, Oregon, died March 31, 2016, at home from complications related to post sepsis syndrome. Patricia was the daughter of Jeffrey Robert Adams of Svensen, Oregon, and Mary Elizabeth Brown of Pottsville, Arkansas. She was born in Coos Bay, Oregon, on August 16, 1979.

She attended Hilda Lahti Elementary School in Knappa, and was a graduate of Knappa High School in Knappa, Oregon. She later attended Clatsop Community College and Portland Community College.

She enjoyed 4-H, horseback riding, gardening, ballet, tap and playing outside with her neighborhood friends. Patty played the piano and enjoyed the arts, as well as listening to music.

Patty made friends everywhere she went. Her roommates enjoyed many family-style dinners and gatherings. Patty treated everyone like family.

She began her waitressing career as a teenager, following in her grandmother Patty Lou Adam's footsteps. Patty became an avid Dave Matthews Band follower after attending her first DMB concert in the Gorge. As an avid follower, she attended his concert annually.

When Patty discovered she was going to be an aunt for the first time, she was so happy she decided she would move in with her sister to be as involved as possible. She was a devoted aunt to all her nieces and nephews. Patty continued her restaurant career by working with many of the fine restaurants in Clatsop County.

Later she moved to Wisconsin, where she worked in many fine restaurants and expanded on her interests in wine by becoming a sommelier. She looked forward to the day that she could return to the Oregon Coast to live near her family again. She was a true lover of the beach. Her dream was to open an olive oil store and restaurant. Patty felt happiest when she was helping others.

Her beautiful life will forever be cherished in the lives of her two siblings, Jeffrey Benjamin Adams (Aimee) of Lakewood, California, and Elisabeth Grace Adams-Pietila (Daniel) of Warrenton, Oregon; her nieces, Lillianna, Talulah and Eliza Lou of Warrenton, Oregon; her nephews, William and Brandon Adams of Lakewood, California; and her special aunt, Margaret Moore of Marina del Rey, California.

The family invites friends to attend her memorial service at the Warrenton Community Center, 170 S.W. Third St., Warrenton, Oregon 97146 on Sunday, April 24, 2016, at 11 a.m.

Coast Guard rescues hiker

The Daily Astorian

SEASIDE — A U.S. Coast Guard helicopter hoisted and medevaced a 71-year-old hiker suffering from exhaustion on Tillamook Head Sunday.

Coast Guard watchstanders received a call from local responders around 8 p.m. Sunday requesting assistance in locating a man who collapsed from exhaustion while hiking back to the Seaside trailhead in Ecola State Park after fishing with a friend.

A helicopter crew diverted from another search-and-rescue case and located the man. Because of his condition and the ruggedness of the terrain, he could not be evacuated on ground.

The Coast Guard hoisted the hiker and flew him to a waiting ambulance at Air Station Astoria.

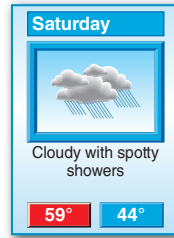

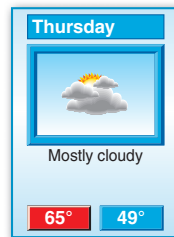

"By working together, we were able to come up with a plan to safely get this injured man off the trail and to the care he needed," Lt. Christopher Morris, the command duty officer at the time of the hoist, said in a statement.
