

Seaside golf: League champs, again

The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — The Seaside boys golf program added another Cowapa League title to its long list of accomplishments, as the Gulls won Monday's league tournament by a narrow 16 strokes.

Seaside carded a 350 team score to finish ahead of Scappoose (366) to win the league championship, hosted by Astoria at the Astoria Golf & Country Club.

Seaside's first-place finish — coupled with their annual undefeated record in dual matches — gives the Gulls their third straight Cowapa League title.

Seaside senior Aaron Richardson won medalist honors, scoring a seven-stroke victory over last year's medalist, Carter Lee of Tillamook.

State qualifiers will be decided in next week's Regional tournament, and after that, the Gulls will set their sights on a third straight state title at the Class 4A level.

Richardson shot a 4-over par 76 in Monday's round, the only player to break 80. Lee was second with an 83 followed by Nathan Mapes of Scappoose with an 86.

Fausett tied for fourth with a pair of 88's. Those five players were joined on the all-league team by Seaside sophomore Jackson Kunde, Tai Martinez and Trevor Geraci of Banks, Cole Schmidlin and Nik Thoma of Valley Catholic and Scappoose's A.J. Miltich.

"It is nice to see Aaron earn a league title," said Seaside coach Jim Poetsch. "He has worked hard for four years and really deserved this one. I missed seeing his over-the-tree Eagle on No. 11, but witnessed his birdie on 16 and his 45-foot birdie putt to end his round."

Richardson had back-to-back doubles at the turn, "but played the rest of the course at even par," Poetsch said.

"Berkley and Jackson making all-league was also a good reward for their hard work," he added. "Our team score wasn't great but good scores were hard to come by today with the wind and super-fast greens. We've got a week to polish our games a little and hopefully we will score a bit better at next week's regional tournament."

Golden State to set tone with defense in Game 2

By JANIE MCCAULEY
AP Sports Writer

OAKLAND, Calif. — Andrew Bogut has taken to publicly calling himself unflattering names.

Such was his mood Monday when someone inquired about the Golden State center often appearing mean and nasty. He used another word to basically refer to himself as a jerk — "100 percent," he said.

As long as Bogut and the defending champion Warriors keep playing the kind of defense that has helped them set the tone so far in these playoffs without MVP Stephen Curry, he won't even mind if anybody else uses those words to describe him either.

Bogut's two early blocks got Golden State going during Sunday's 118-106 win against the Portland Trail Blazers in Game 1 of the Western Conference semifinals. The teams resume their best-of-seven series Tuesday night in Oakland.

Also Tuesday, the Toronto Raptors host the Miami Heat in Game 1 of their Eastern Conference semifinal.

The Warriors again will try to establish an energy and presence on the defensive end from the start. They know their offense will come given this team's depth and many playmakers.

"It's very important we don't give up just layups early in the game," Bogut said. "We're trying to protect the paint and make sure they get nothing easy early."

Bogut wound up with 10 points, 12 rebounds and three blocks, and the Warriors have proven they are still a dominant team without Curry, who could return from a sprained right knee as soon as Saturday's Game 3 in Portland.

The Australian 7-footer takes pride in his unfriendly nature on the court, and he rarely is seen shaking hands with the opponent before the opening tip. That topic led to Coach of the Year Steve Kerr reflecting on a rare road start against the Celtics back when he was a player.

"I think in 15 years I only started like 17 games," Kerr said Monday. "I started a game in Boston Garden my second year in the league, somebody got hurt, I was with Cleveland. I went out and Larry Bird gave me a fist bump and said, 'Good luck, Steve,' and I almost fainted. It was awesome. Larry Bird knew my name."

Any lack of pregame pleasantries aside, the Blazers fully understand they can't afford another slow start after falling behind 37-17 after the first period, which Kerr called "a beautiful quarter." Guards Damian Lillard and CJ McCollum combined to shoot 13 for 43.

Back home in the East Bay, Lillard was hoarse as he has been battling a chest cold in recent days but noted Monday: "I've always said there are no excuses. The bottom line is my team needs me to perform better than I did. Tomorrow, I've got to be better. I will be. Our team will be better."

He said the Blazers must match Golden State from the tipoff.

"We've just got to understand that they are a good first-quarter team. We've got to be better from the start of the game," Lillard said. "So once we fix that and continue to compete the way we did, we'll have a chance."

Warriors baseball scores nonleague win at Ilwaco

The Daily Astorian

LONG BEACH, Wash. — With some big games on tap in league play this week, the Warrenton baseball team tuned up with a 9-4 win at Ilwaco Monday, in nonleague baseball action in Long Beach, Wash.

The Warriors, 6-9 overall, play at Rainier today, followed by a doubleheader Friday at Portland Christian.

In Monday's win, Warrenton snapped a 1-1 tie with five runs in the top of the third inning, then tacked on two in the fourth for an 8-1 lead.

David Foster led Warrenton's 12-hit attack with three hits, while Matt Burgher was 2-for-3 with two RBIs in his first career start, and Anthony Cochran drove in two runs and was 2-for-4.

"One thing that really pleases me with this group, is that they're so willing to give themselves up to score a run," said Warrenton coach Lennie Wolfe, who recorded career win No. 498. "They'll give us a ground ball up the middle or whatever is needed to advance the runner, and it's nice when your players work hard, they're selfless and not playing for themselves."

Gavon McFadden started and pitched the first four innings to pick up the victory, before giving way to Joe Little and Dalton Knight.

Brandon Sparks, Michael Aguayo and Zac Tapio pitched for Ilwaco, which had four hits and committed three errors.

Indians defeat Gulls, 15-1

The Daily Astorian

SCAPPOOSE — A postponed game last week has resulted in three games in three days for both the Scappoose and Seaside baseball teams.

The two teams kicked off a big week Monday at Scappoose, where the Indians scored four runs in their first at-bat, on their way to a 15-1 win over the Gulls.

Gus Nelson started and pitched four innings for Scap-poose, with Kyler Alioth tossing the final inning.

Otto Hoekstre and Scott Plampin had the only two hits for the Gulls. Hunter Holmason had a double, triple, two RBIs and four runs scored for Scappoose.

Seaside hosts Scappoose today, 5 p.m. at Broadway Field.

The Gulls host Valley Catholic Wednesday, while Scappoose returns to the North Coast for a single game at Astoria Wednesday.
