

Indians capture Cowapa golf title

The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — Morgan Hall of Scappoose won medalist honors, and also led the Indians to a team title Tuesday, in the Cowapa League girls golf championships at the Astoria Golf & Country Club.

Hall finished with a 95 to finish one stroke ahead of Valley Catholic's Matti Thurman, while Scappoose carded a 414 team score, to the Valiants' 418.

Astoria was third at 466, followed by Seaside (577) and Tillamook (643).

Seaside's Caroline Kotson posted a 99 to tie for third with Isabel Jory of Scappoose.

Astoria senior Chloe Hunt highlighted her day with a birdie on the fifth hole, and finished with a 100 score for fifth overall, resulting in a first-team selection to the all-league team.

Seaside's Caroline Kotson shot a 99, tied for third overall and made the Cowapa League's first team all-league team following her round Tuesday.

Teammate Samantha Hemsley was 10th overall with a 113, for second-team all-league.

Hit of the day, a double off the center field fence to score two runs.

Pertain scored moments later on a groundout for a 3-1 lead.

McGough — the Braves' catcher — turned in a big defensive play of his own in the bottom of the fifth.

Tyler Lyngstad drew a lead-off walk, and with pinch-runner Jasyn Gohl running on a bunt attempt by O'Brien, McGough grabbed a foul tip off O'Brien bat, and fired to first for a double play.

And it saved a run for the Braves, because Astoria's next batter, Strange, belted his second home run of the day to deep left field.

Banks tacked on a run in the sixth, when Bunn drew a one-out walk, stole second and scored on two straight wild pitches for a two-run lead.

And that was plenty for Schorn, who retired seven of the final eight batters he faced, striking out two in the seventh to finish with 11 strikeouts and four walks.

Astoria's only other hit was a fourth-inning double by Sam-boy Tuimato.

The Fishermen host Scappoose at 5 p.m. today.

BASEBALL

Knappa blanks Faith Bible, 7-0

HILLSBORO — Playing under the lights at Hillsboro Hops Stadium Tuesday, the Knappa Loggers "Cruzed" to a 7-0 win over the Falcons in Northwest League baseball action.

Knappa sophomore Reuben Cruz — a leading candidate for Class 2A Player of the Year — had a double and a triple for the Loggers, who led 4-0 after three innings.

Pitcher Dale Takalo did the rest, allowing just two hits with 11 strikeouts and no walks in six innings of work.

Rea shuts down Warriors, 10-0

RAINIER — Rainier scored nine runs in its final three at-bats Tuesday, to defeat Warrenton 10-0 in a Lewis & Clark League baseball game.

The Warriors lost first baseman Hunter Wilson to a thumb injury early in the game, which resulted in a reshuffled defensive lineup for the Warriors — leading in part to six errors and eight unearned runs for the Columbians.

Caymon Rea got the complete-game win for Rainier, allowing just three hits.

Ryan Schmunk had a double and a triple for the Columbians, who improve to 9-0 in league play.

Scappoose rally defeats Gulls

SEASIDE — The Seaside Gulls were three outs away from one of their biggest wins in years ... but the Scappoose Indians overcame a 9-4 deficit after six innings with six runs in the top of the seventh, on their way to a 10-9 win over the Gulls at Broadway Field Tuesday.

After giving up two runs in the top of the first, Seaside scored one run in its first at-bat, then scored four in the second and four more in the third, highlighted by back-to-back singles from Dawson Blanchard and Astor Landwehr to start the second.

A line drive single by Payton Westerholm brought in Landwehr, and the Gulls took advantage of Scappoose errors to built a 5-2 lead.

Seaside pushed the lead to 9-2 in the third, with run-scoring hits by Landwehr and Duncan Thompson.

Starter Scott Plampin held the Indians scoreless in the second, third and fourth, before giving up a run each in the fifth and sixth.

In their big seventh-inning rally, the Indians took advantage of six walks by two Seaside pitchers, and J.C. Gross highlighted the inning with a two-out, game-tying grand slam home run.

FULL SCOREBOARD ON PAGE 4A

A double by Mante Woods scored Owen Parsons with the go-ahead run. Seaside went down in order in the bottom of the seventh.

In other Cowapa League baseball action Tuesday, Valley Catholic defeated Tillamook, 20-14.

SOFTBALL

Rainier wins one-hitter, 12-1

RAINIER — Warrenton held a 1-0 lead after a half-inning Tuesday, but Rainier rallied for a 12-1 win over the Warriors in a Lewis & Clark League softball game.

Rainier's Kami Gray, Sarah Probasco and Jady Crape teamed up for eight hits (five for extra bases), six runs and six RBIs.

Warrenton's Landree Miethe had the lone Warrior hit, a leadoff single in the first inning. She later scored on an error.

Rainier answered with three runs in the bottom of the first, and scored multiple runs in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth.

Gray drove in four runs with a double and a triple, and Probasco had a double and a home run.

Probasco was also the winning pitcher, allowing just one hit with 14 strikeouts and two walks.

Scappoose belts three HRs in win

SCAPPOOSE — After a narrow 4-1 win over Astoria in Game 1 of a doubleheader April 15, the Scappoose Indians have now outscored the Lady Fishermen 35-0 in the last two meetings, including a 15-0 victory Tuesday in Scappoose.

The Indians won Game 2 of the April 15 doubleheader 20-0, and scored five runs in each of the first three innings Tuesday.

Astoria had just two hits (Rylee DeMander and Mykka Abrahams) off Scappoose pitcher Kendal Bailey, who struck out 11 batters with two walks.

Scappoose takes over sole possession of second place in the league standings at 8-2, while Astoria falls to 6-4.

Scappoose senior Sage Harrison blasted two home runs, and finished with five RBIs and three runs scored. She homered in the first and second innings.

Scappoose sophomore Hannah Galey had two doubles, a home run and drove in three runs for the Indians, who finished with 16 hits in four at-bats.

Astoria plays a doubleheader Friday at Seaside. Game 1 starts at 5 p.m. The Gulls posted a 3-2 Valley Catholic Tuesday.

Braves hold off the Fishermen, 4-2

The Daily Astorian

The Banks Braves scored a huge road victory Tuesday at Aiken Field, as they rallied from an early deficit to post a 4-2 win over Astoria in Cowapa League baseball action.

It was the second win for the Braves over the Fishermen in five days, and gives Banks a 9-1 record in league play. The Braves hold a one-game lead over Valley Catholic (8-2), with Scappoose (6-4) third and Astoria (5-5) fourth.

All four teams are ranked in the top 13 in the latest OSAA rankings.

Coming off a 7-0 loss to the No. 2-ranked Braves last Friday, the Fishermen jumped out to a much better start in Tuesday's contest.

Astoria's Kyle Strange belted David Schorn's third pitch of the game over the left field fence for a quick 1-0 lead.

And thanks to some fine pitching and defensive play by the Fish, that's where it stayed through four innings.

Following back-to-back base hits by Jake Evans and Dakota Bunn in the top of the second, the Braves had runners at second and third with no outs.

Astoria starter Fridtjof Fremstad got Blake Gobel to fly out to right field, then struck out the next two batters to end the threat.

Schorn also buckled down after the first inning, and the game quickly turned into a pitcher's duel.

Schorn struck out the side in the bottom of the second, and retired the side in order in the third.

Meanwhile, Astoria senior catcher Ryker Helmersen was helping Fremstad keep the Braves off the scoreboard.

Leadoff batters for Banks reached base in both the third and fourth innings, but Helmersen gunned down both on steal attempts.

Astoria outfielder Cade O'Brien also made one of his patented diving catches in center field to take away another hit.

The Braves finally broke through in the top of the fifth.

Logan St. Marie had a lead-off single, and Kylan Taylor reached on an infield hit to put two runners on.

After a pitching change, the Braves' Gunnar Pertain reached on an error, and Casey McGough delivered the biggest hit of the day, a double off the center field fence to score two runs.

Pertain scored moments later on a groundout for a 3-1 lead.

McGough — the Braves' catcher — turned in a big defensive play of his own in the bottom of the fifth.

Tyler Lyngstad drew a lead-off walk, and with pinch-runner Jasyn Gohl running on a bunt attempt by O'Brien, McGough grabbed a foul tip off O'Brien bat, and fired to first for a double play.

And it saved a run for the Braves, because Astoria's next batter, Strange, belted his second home run of the day to deep left field.

Banks tacked on a run in the sixth, when Bunn drew a one-out walk, stole second and scored on two straight wild pitches for a two-run lead.

And that was plenty for Schorn, who retired seven of the final eight batters he faced, striking out two in the seventh to finish with 11 strikeouts and four walks.

Astoria's only other hit was a fourth-inning double by Sam-boy Tuimato.

The Fishermen host Scappoose at 5 p.m. today.
