Former Gulls flying high at collegiate level

By GARY HENLEY
The Daily Astorian

McMINNVILLE — Seaside High School graduate Kelly Willyard — now in her freshman year of track at Northwest Christian University in Eugene — broke the NCU school record in the 100 meters last Saturday in the Linfield Open at McMinnville.

In the process, she qualified for the Cascade Collegiate Championships, Friday and Saturday in Hermiston.

Willyard ran the 100 in 13.11 seconds to finish ahead of the former record-holder, teammate Miranda Johnson.

Willyard's time placed her 20th in Saturday's heats of the 100. The best time was an amazing 11.70 by Jamie Ashcroft of Alaska-Anchorage. Ashcroft also won the 200 meters in 24.83. Willyard placed 17th overall in 27.37.

Seaside's Josh Chestnut, also a member of the NCU track team, was eighth in the men's long jump, as the former Gull soared 19 feet, 8 inches. He also had the 19th best time in the 100 (11.54).

In the same meet, Knappa graduate Steve Allen, a sophomore at Pacific University, was ninth in the 5,000 meters (16:38.38), just ahead of brother Mike Allen (16:40.34).

Knappa's Kate Shear, competing unattached, took third in the javelin (out of 28 competitors) with a toss of 137 feet, 9 inches.

In other "Hometown Heroes" news, Seaside's Allison Kilday, a freshman at Occidental College in Los Angeles, helped the Tigers' women's track team finish second in the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championships, Occidental's highest finish since 1999.

A member of the Tigers' 1,600-meter relay team, Kilday helped the foursome of Charlotte Cullip, Isabelle Dunne, Onyekachi Nwabueze and Kilday finish 10th in 3:56.38, clinching the second-place team finish.

Kilday's time of 65.14 was good enough for seventh in the 400-meter hurdles.

In other news, Warrenton graduate Mady Hanna — after two years of basketball at Lower Columbia College — has signed a letter-of-intent to play basketball for the next two years at Warner-Pacific.

Splash Brothers Curry, Thompson send Golden State to West finals

By JANIE MCCAULEY
AP Sports Writer

OAKLAND, Calif. — Stephen Curry raised his left arm in triumph and cradled the game ball in his right as yellow confetti fell.

The Splash Brothers are taking defending champion Golden State back to the Western Conference finals for a second straight year.

Klay Thompson's sweet shooting touch carried the Warriors while Curry was down, and together again in the starting lineup they guided Golden State another step closer to a repeat title with a 125-121 win over the Portland Trail Blazers in Game 5 on Wednesday night.

Thompson scored 33 points with six 3-pointers, while Curry added 29 and sealed it with a 3 with 24.9 seconds left. He finished with five 3s a day after becoming the first unanimous MVP in NBA history, also adding 11 assists after returning to the starting lineup for the first time all series because of a knee injury.

"West finals two years in a row, it's been a special, special season," Thompson said.

Draymond Green, who had his left ankle retaped in the fourth quarter, had 13 points, 11 rebounds and six assists after guaranteeing Golden State would advance from this game.

Damian Lillard scored 28 points and CJ McCollum had 27 for the young Trail Blazers, who overcame an 0-2 deficit to the Clippers in the first round to get this far.

The Warriors got past Portland even with Curry missing the first three games as he recovered from a sprained right knee.

"We know what it takes to win in the playoffs," Thompson said. "That might be the closest five-game series of all-time."

Now, Golden State will wait for the conclusion of the Oklahoma City-San Antonio series, led 3-2 by the Thunder. And the banged-up Warriors could use the time to get healthy.

They lost 7-foot center Andrew Bogut for the second half because of a right leg injury.

Thompson shot 13 for 17 and became the first player to have at least five 3s in seven straight games, also recording his fourth 30-point game this postseason.

"Klay's shooting was incredible tonight," Warriors coach Steve Kerr said. "Then the way Steph finished the game, that step-back shot to put it to a five-point lead was probably a shot only he can make. So I thought a gutty effort from a lot of guys. It wasn't our best stuff, but we got it done."
