Coaster Theatre invites public to open house

The Daily Astorian

CANNON BEACH — To launch the Coaster Theatre's 45th year, an open house is planned from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the theater, 108 N. Hemlock St. Admission is free.

"This will be an opportunity for those who haven't been to the theatre in a while, or who have never been inside it, to check it out," said Patrick Lathrop, executive director. "It's also our chance to say thank you to our long-time supporters and volunteers."

Light bites, fruit, wine and soft drinks will be served, and there will be performances, lasting a few minutes each, throughout the two hours. Performers include Coaster actors Jean White Rice, David Sweetney, Lisa Fergus, and Coaster Kidz, Parker and Holly Fergus. Tours of the theatre will also be conducted.

Although the actual 45th anniversary begins next January, the open house is a kick-off for the theatre's "Take-A-Seat, Preserve the Playhouse" campaign to raise funds to replace the creaky, springy seats that can distract from a theatre or concert experience with more comfortable, state-of-the-art seats. A sample of the new seats will be available at the open house. Donations will also help to "refresh" the theatre with new curtains, carpet, interior paint and other touches.
