Great Vow Zen

CLATSKANIE — The Great Vow Zen Monastery, located at 79640 Quincy-Mayer Road in Clatskanie, holds a Jizo Ceremony for Children from 3 to 5:30 p.m. May 28. To help families and friends in their process of grief over the death of a child, lost children are honored in a ceremony in the Jizo Bodhisattva remembrance garden.

Time is spent making a personal memorial for the child, by writing a message, making a simple toy or necklace, or sewing a small garment. There are materials available, but participants may wish to bring scissors, thread, needle, and a small piece of red cloth. Many also bring a picture of the child or other personal token of remembrance. These memorials are left on the Jizo statues. Families and friends are welcome to revisit the garden any time.

The ceremony is very simple, and done in silence. There is no charge, and anyone of any religious affiliation is welcome. An RSVP is appreciated at <http://bit.ly/21WYzkB>
