Hearts Gone South will perform May 28 at the Sou'Wester Lodge.

Sou'Wester Lodge to host live music

SEAVIEW, Wash. — The Sou'Wester Lodge will host two nights of live music this weekend. Performances are free and open to the public.

At 8 p.m. Saturday, May 28, country and honky-tonk band Hearts Gone South will perform.

Hailing out of Asheville, North Carolina, Hearts Gone South shoots straight from the hip and hits their target dead on. Led by Tricia Tripp with a cast and crew of all-star country players, Hearts Gone South cranks out tear-soaked ballads, heartfelt dance tunes and straight-up solid country gold. Other band members include Mick Glasgow, Derrick Spivey, Joel Jackson, John James Tourville, Mark Jackson and guests Tom Pittman and Matt Sellars. Currently on a West Coast tour, the band will play another show at 4 p.m. May 29 in Astoria at the Big O Saloon before heading up to Alaska.

Then, at 8 p.m. Sunday, May 29, Portland musician Pete Krebs will perform.

Best known as a member of the punk-pop band Hazel, and for a split

Ilwaco book sale is set

ILWACO, Wash. — Find a good summer read to add to your bookshelf this weekend. The Friends of the Ilwaco-Ocean Park Libraries will hold a book sale from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, May 28 and 29 at the Ilwaco High School Black Lake Campus, located at 404 School Road.

Some books are marked specially; all others are $1 per hardbound and trade paperback and 50 cents for regular-size paperback.

The Friends of the Ilwaco-Ocean Park Libraries collect and sort donated books year round to sell at two annual sales: Memorial Day and Labor Day weekend.

All book sale proceeds will benefit the Ilwaco and Ocean Park Timberland Libraries.

Friends of the Library President Sandy Stonebreaker said the Friends, "Put $70,000 in to Ocean Park (Library.) We bought all the lighted shelving
