2 to 5 p.m.

GEARHART — The next Gearhart ArtWalk will be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Saturday, June 4. Find imagination, art and summer fun at local merchants.

A Great Gallery

576 Pacific Way
Back by popular demand, pastel pet portrait artist Deanne Johnson will be the featured artist for June. A lover of animals, she began doing commissioned portraits about 10 years ago and will be working on her current piece during art walk. Come see her process, and bring your pet to meet her. The gallery also has new pieces by Gearhart wood turner Daniel Harris. Susan Thomas is working on seascapes that reflect the beauty of the Gearhart Beach. Refreshments and chocolate will be served.

photographer Elizabeth Condit. Rarely seen in the Astoria area without a camera around her neck, Condit captures the moments of her children, their friends, her fitness classes, the stunning scenery of Clatsop County, art shows and patrons, and occasionally records the everyday activities of U.S. Coast Guard Lt. Tom Condit. Elly has recently relocated to Clatsop County from Virginia where her photography business ranged from fashion photography, the usual individuals. For June, artists who have been studying with Shirley Dahlsten in the 10-week class "Creating for Enjoyment" are featured. The public is invited to the show opening and reception during art walk. Dahlsten brings to life her students' understanding and appreciation of the ways in which art has evolved over time. In this class and several that preceded it, she involved artists in using a variety of media to experience demonstrations, still life set-up, abstract painting, and self-discovery assignments. The work of other North Coast artists will be on display to add to the variety of the featured art. Refreshments will be served.
