Maddox dancers to perform

ASTORIA — In celebration of Maddox Dance Studio's 66th annual recitals, dancers are planning three shows for North Coast audiences this weekend. Two hundred dancers will show off their years of experience for audiences at 6 p.m. Saturday, June 18 and at 3 p.m. and at 6 p.m. Sunday, June 19. All three performances will take place at the Astoria High School auditorium.

Saturday's show will feature choreography by Emily Madsen, set to "Claire de Lune" for the modern class, acrobatic selections "Once Upon A Time" and "Brottsjor" by instructor Kelly Eckstein, plus an appearance of Maddox alumni dancer Tess Rund, the reigning Miss North Coast.

At the conclusion of this performance, the graduating seniors will be presented. Isabella Marinovich-Mallares, Jessica Barber and Megan McCall De Vos from Astoria High School and Anna Kaim and Morgan Matthews from Seaside High School will be recognized for their many years of dance training and performances.

The 3 p.m. Sunday show will feature preschool and young students of the studio, most making their stage debut.

The "Lollipop Tree," "My Teddy Bear And Me" and "Little Ballet Dolls" will be three of the music numbers used for the tiny dancers, who are directed by Madsen, Eckstein, Cheryl Klatt, Jeanne Peterson and Carleta Lewis Allen. Allen will also present her young musical theater students in "Freak Flag" from "Schrek."

The final 6 p.m. show on Sunday presents Little Ballet Theatre dancers in "Graduation Ball," a ballet set in 1840s Vienna where

Following the Little Ballet Theatre performance, the audience will be treated to musical theater pieces from "Legally Blonde" choreographed by Simmons; a selection from

"Lion King" by Allen; and a performance of tap, ballet and hip-hop numbers by the theater's preteen, teen and adult dancers.

After each performance, students and families will gather in the AHS Commons for a pink lemonade and cookie party where each student will receive the traditional Achievement Medal.

Tickets are available 30 minutes before each show at the school box office. Tickets are $10 for adults, $5 for students and seniors, and children under age 6 are free.
