

OBITUARIES

Irma Ann Hanft
Hammond

June 28, 1920 — June 19, 2016

Irma Ann Hanft was born in Gelsenkirchen, Germany, on June 28, 1920, to Fred and Margaret Nabereit. She passed peacefully on June 19, 2016, at the age of 95. She loved life and lived it to the fullest.

Her family immigrated to the U.S. from Germany when she was only 3 years old, in 1924. After arriving in New York the young family traveled by train to Portland, Oregon, and then to their home in Nehalem, Oregon.

While attending Nehalem Grade School and high school, swimming was her favorite activity. After graduating from high school in 1938, she attended a business school in Portland. She worked as a typist for the U.S. Army Engineers during World War II.

She married Robert Anthony in July 1941 and their son, Stanley, was born in July 1943. They were divorced in 1945, and she moved back to Manzanita, Oregon.

She married her second husband, Marshall Hanft, in 1946. After living briefly in North Dakota, they moved back to Oregon. Irma worked as a clerical aide while her husband attended Willamette University in Salem. Later, their daughter, Gayla, was born in 1954.

Irma loved doing many activities with her family. They spent a lot of time camping, fishing and going to historic areas to take photos. She was instrumental in getting her husband's book, "Fort Stevens: Oregon's defender at the river of the West," published.

Between 1961 and 1980, Irma worked for the state of Oregon in Salem. She worked her way up from a clerk typist to an administrative assistant. After retiring, she picked up the game of golf and traveled all over the world. She recorded her travels through her photography.

She moved to Hammond, Oregon, in 1986 to be near her new grandson, Joshua. Family was always so important to her, and helping them in any way she could. She was a strong positive presence in her children and grandchildren's lives.

Irma is survived by her children, Gayla Holloway and her husband, Joe, and Stanley Hanft and his wife, Nellie; her grandchildren, Joshua and Jordan Holloway, Chuck, Mark and Brett Hanft and Sandra Phifer; a great-granddaughter, Ella Hanft; and a niece, Sandra Mason.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Marshall; her younger sister, Marge Grant; and Marge's daughter, Donna Meek.

The family would like to thank the following caregivers, who showed so much love and devotion to our mom during the last few years: Shelly Bighill, Donna Barnett and Tanja Sivley. Also, special thanks to the amazing hospice staff and volunteers. Donations can be made to Lower Columbia Hospice, 2111 Exchange St., Astoria, OR 97103.

On Monday, June 27, a visitation will be held from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary, 1165 Franklin Ave., Astoria, Oregon. The funeral service will follow at 3 p.m. Please sign the online guest book at www.caldwellsmortuary.com

Irma will be laid to rest next to her husband, Marshall, at Willamette National Cemetery in Portland, Oregon, on Tuesday, June 28.

William Stephen Osburn

Magnolia, Texas

Feb. 2, 1950 — June 18, 2016

William Stephen Osburn, or "Steve," was born in Rochester, Minnesota, Feb. 2, 1950, and passed away peacefully at Sendera Ranch home, Magnolia, Texas, the morning of Saturday, June 18, 2016, after a difficult and long struggle with Lewy Body Dementia, Parkinsonism and ALS.

Steve is survived by his devoted wife, Emily, and his two adoring daughters, Alison and Claire Osburn, as well as numerous loving and beloved friends, in-laws, cousins, nieces and nephews. The son of William and Judith Osburn, Steve was the second-eldest of four siblings. The three surviving brothers and sisters include Carol Jenkins and her husband, Brent Jenkins, Jim Osburn and Susie Jopling and her husband, Buzz Jopling.

A few years after graduating with honors from the University of Texas in Austin, Steve and Emily traveled to Cannon Beach, Oregon, where Steve eventually took over the family business started by his mother and father, Osburn's Grocery and Delicatessen. Steve was a leader, mentor and friend to many of the employees of Osburn's Grocery and many other Cannon Beach community members. The business thrived under Steve and Emily's direction for over 20 years before they sold the store and returned to Texas.

Steve had many passions, but one of the strongest was learning and teaching. Over the years this included teaching seventh grade reading, imparting to his daughters his boundless knowledge and appreciation of music, literature, poetry, botany, biology and any other important bits of life's wisdom he could get into their heads (when they were listening, of course).

Steve taught himself to run a business without any business training, and eventually became a fine wine expert and collector. Steve had a fun-loving and genuinely caring spirit, a mischievous and witty sense of humor, and a profoundly honest, accepting and loving attitude towards people from all walks of life. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him and loved him.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, June 25, 2016, at 11:30 a.m. at Trinity Episcopal Church, 3901 S. Panther Creek Drive, The Woodlands, TX 77381. A reception follows the service in the Paris Hall.

Memorial contributions may be made to: the National Parkinson's Foundation, www.parkinson.org; or Ducks Unlimited, www.ducksunlimited.org

Patricia Pugh

Portland

Oct. 8, 1942 — June 14, 2016

Born in Chicago, Illinois, to John and Martha Reynolds, Patricia was raised in Knappa, Oregon. Patricia passed away June 14, 2016, surrounded by family, after a courageous 20-plus year battle with cancer.

She is survived by her children, Jody Hart, Jeff Anderson, Tiffany (William) Kelley and Trent Anderson; her brothers, James and Daniel Reynolds; and her beloved cats.

A service will be held at noon on Saturday, June 25, 2016, at Trinity Lutheran Church, 5520 N.E. Killingsworth, Portland.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions be made to the Feral Cat Coalition of Oregon.

Marlys Yvonne Boyer

Brookings

Dec. 19, 1935 — June 19, 2016

Marlys Yvonne Boyer passed away on June 19, 2016, surrounded by loved ones. She was the daughter of C. William and Sylvia (Westerso) Stordalen, born Dec. 19, 1936, in Williston, North Dakota.

In 1956, she married Samuel H. Boyce. She bore him four beautiful daughters. They later divorced.

In 1970, she married William G. Boyer. He had children of his own.

She is survived by daughters Colleen R. Boyce, Dianna Lynne Gourley and Thelma I. Scharber; stepchildren Brenda McGee, Kathy Boyer, Lisa Brown and Skip Boyer; a sister, Lois Schecker; and a brother, Karlton Stordalen.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Carla Rae Boyce; parents C. William and Sylvia Stordalen; and husband William G. Boyer.

She was much respected in the community through her work as a lab and X-ray technician. She also volunteered extensively for the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars. Many people loved her very much.

Redwood Memorial Chapel is assisting the family. Condolences may be expressed online at www.redwoodmemorial.net
