Liberty Theater to host Missoula Children's Theatre summer camp and performances

ASTORIA — The Liberty Theater's annual summer Missoula Children's Theatre camp is approaching. This year's production is "The Frog Prince."

After a week of practicing and having fun during Missoula Children's Theatre camp residency July 19 to 22, local students will present this original adaptation of the classic fairy tale in two performances July 23 at the Liberty Theater, located at 1203 Commercial St.

Open auditions will be held at the theater at 10 a.m. July 18. Parts are available for 60 children, ages 6 through 18. Those auditioning should arrive at 9:45 a.m.

There is a participation charge of $30 per student for this week-long theater camp of fun, rehearsal and performance.

This version of "The Frog Prince" was conceived and written by Michael McGill. Music and lyrics are by McGill with additional music by Rebecca McGill.

Deep in the royal swamp, a lonely Frog retrieves a golden ball for Princess Prim in exchange for friendship and comfort. The spoiled princess doesn't want to live up to her part of the bargain, and she puts her royal Knights on alert. So the trouble begins.

Luckily, Frog gets some good advice from Ollie the wise old Aspen tree, the well-read Alligator, and the kindly Swamp Things. The Ducks, a busy Fly, and dancing Flamingos also come to Frog's assistance as the Frog's kindly servant tirelessly tries to set things right.

Even the Queen, kindly Princess Proper, and spunky Princess Peppy get involved and, despite the trouble caused by the nasty Venus Fly Traps, all ends happily. The hero becomes a Prince (formerly known as Frog) and realizes that friendships are made, not bought — and he discovers that it is not what you are but who you are that counts.

Tickets for the July 23 performances are available at the Liberty Box Office, 503-325-5922, ext. 55 and at the door. Tickets will cost $10 for adults and $5 for students, seniors and military.
