'America's Got Talent' finalist to perform in concert

SEASIDE — Elvis is returning to the building, and he is bringing Johnny Cash.

NBC's "America's Got Talent" finalist and world-renowned Las Vegas and Branson Elvis Presley tribute artist Joseph Hall and the Pacific Northwest's own Johnny Cash tribute artist Brandon Cash will perform a one-night-only tribute to two of the most iconic stars ever to grace the stage. Global Elite Management presents this concert at 7 p.m. Friday, July 8 at the Seaside Convention Center.

These two artists are hailed throughout the world as elite and authentic acts. The Seaside concert is part of a short tour of Oregon, and Hall and Cash will perform some of the greatest hits of the '50s, '60s, and '70s.

This all-ages event will be emceed by KBZY radio personality Terry Sol and Global Elite Management may add an additional performer; watch for any updates. Tickets are available now.

There are a limited number of VIP tickets for sale; they cost $40 each. VIP ticket holders are invited to join Hall and Cash for a meet and greet from 6 to 6:30 p.m. before the concert starts. An exclusive photo opportunity and gift bag will be given to ticket holders.

General admission tickets are $20 in advance or $25 at the door. Children ages 5 to 10 are $10. Children age 4 and under are admitted free.

Tickets are available at the Seaside Convention Center or at www.eventbrite.com; search for "Resurrecting The Legend," or call Global Elite Management at 503-800-0070.
