Learn to create patterns with paint

ASTORIA — Do you like vibrant and intricate patterns? Do you like to experiment and play with paint? Here's your chance to learn the thousand-year-old process for making colorful patterns on paper the modern, easy way.

Ellen Zimet will teach Marbelizing, a two-day workshop, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. July 15 and 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. July 16 at the Astoria Art Loft, located at 106 Third St.

All paints and chemicals are provided as well as practice paper. Students should bring drawing paper and old watercolor or acrylic paintings to marblize. Additional paper will be available for purchase. The cost of the workshop is $90.

With a degree in fashion design and merchandizing from the Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, New York, Zimet followed many paths in her professional career, including teaching art, writing, serving as an administrator for the Los Angeles Unified School District, working as a self-employed educational consultant, counseling, and now, being a full-time artist.

She is a member of the Chaffey Community of Art and the Associated Artists of the Inland Empire in California, Palette Puddlers and Trail's End Art Association.

For more information, contact Astoria Art Loft at 503-325-4442 or Zimet at ellenzimet@earthlink.net

'Quilts on the Willapa' seeks submissions

RAYMOND, Wash. — Area quilters are encouraged to show their work in the Willapa Harbor Quilters' annual show in early August. "Quilts on the Willapa" will run Aug. 5 and 6 at Raymond High School, 1016 Commercial St. The show is open to all quilters.

Quilt registration will take place from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Aug. 2 at the First Baptist Church of Raymond, 913 Duryea. To make other arrangements, call 360-942-2910 or 360-875-6506.

Besides bed-size quilts, the show features items such as table runners, pillows and wall hangings. A feature this year will be some patriotic quilts made for local veterans. A boutique table offers items made by local quilters.

This year's featured quilter is Vickie Fenstermacher, who will display works from three family generations. The show also features the annual raffle quilt, "Bear Hollow." Vendors include Quilt Harbor from Aberdeen, which offers sewing machine service.

The show is free, but, donations are welcome to help cover the cost of hiring students to set up and take down displays. Show hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday. Those who register quilts will be asked to pick up their entries after 5 p.m. Saturday.

Willapa Harbor Quilters meet at 11:30 a.m. Tuesdays at the Raymond Baptist Church. Interested quilters are welcome to drop in.
