

Tickets on sale for Cannon Beach museum's raffle

CANNON BEACH — Do you like local art, historic photographs, or gift certificates from your favorite local shops? How about supporting a local nonprofit? Then the Cannon Beach History Center & Museum's annual fall raffle is for you.

The raffle takes place as part of the museum's annual fundraiser, the Cottage & Garden Tour. The drawing will take place Sept. 10. You do not have to be present to win, but you might want to be anyway. The raffle drawing will take place during the Maggie & the Cats concert from 6 to 8 p.m. at the museum.

For $5 you have the opportunity to take home some pretty wonderful items. The shining star is a one-of-a-kind piece by Cannon Beach glasswork artist Jim Kingwell. Kingwell has been glass blowing since the '70s, and his work is legendary. Glass artists from around the world visit Icefire Glassworks to work with him.

If you have never been, Icefire Glassworks is located in the old Van Vleet logging building at the corner of Gower and Hemlock streets. At Icefire Glassworks, visitors can watch as glass artists Kingwell and Suzanne Kindland create vessels with dramatic colors and specialized techniques.

oil. Her love of nature and the sea comes through in everything she does. The original piece that's in the raffle, "From the Path," was inspired by Arnold's favorite place — Cannon Beach.

Also part of the raffle are several pieces by Pacific Northwest illustrator Gabri Kirkendall. Kirkendall specializes in hand lettering, watercolor, and pen and ink.

Other prizes include a dinner for two from the Cannon Beach Mo's, or one of two $25 gift cards from Insomnia Coffee, one of two $20 gift certificates from Cannon Beach Treasure Company, a gift card from the Human Bean, an original Beth Willis CD, or any of 20 other prizes.

Tickets are available at the museum or online at www.cbhistory.org. For information, call 503-436-9301.
