Astoria Parks & Rec puts on August movie series

ASTORIA — Looking for Wednesday night entertainment? Astoria Parks & Recreation has you covered.

Grab your camping chair or the nearest blanket, and head to Fred Lindstrom Park every Wednesday evening this August for a series of family-friendly movies.

All movies will be shown Wednesday evenings at Fred Lindstrom Park (aka Peter Pan Park), located at Sixth Street and Niagara Avenue. Movies will start at dark — approximately 8:30 p.m.

Admission is free and open to all. Concessions will be available for purchase.

On Aug. 3, watch the emotions joy, fear, anger, disgust and sadness come to life in Pixar's 2015 animated film "Inside Out." Starring the vocal talents of Amy Poehler, Bill Hader and Phyllis Smith, "Inside Out" follows young Riley after she is uprooted and moves to San Francisco. With the move, Riley — and her personified emotions — must learn how to best navigate a new city, house and school.

On Aug. 10, journey into the epic world of dinosaurs in Pixar's 2015 animated film "The Good Dinosaur." In a world where dinosaurs and humans live side-by-side, an Apatosaurus named Arlo makes an unlikely human friend, learns to confront his fears and discovers what he's capable of.

On Aug. 17, learn more about the Minions, the easily distracted tribe of villain-helpers, in the 2015 animated film "Minions." Protective leader Kevin, teenage rebel Stuart and lovable little Bob are recruited by Scarlet Overkill, a super-villain voiced by Sandra Bullock who, alongside her inventor husband Herb, hatches a plot to take over the world.

On Aug. 24, discover a whole new world with the 1992 classic Disney film "Aladdin." Yearning for adventure and with her father trying to marry her off, Princess Jasmine sneaks out of the palace to the marketplace, where she meets the good-hearted street urchin Aladdin. Under the orders of the sultan's evil advisor Jafar, Aladdin is thrown in jail and gets caught up in Jafar's plot to rule the land. With the help of a genie's magic, Aladdin pretends to be a
