

SHALLON WINERY

Mr. "Reasonable"
(Paul van der Veldt)

Gaultheria shallon (salal)

- Bringing in 60,000 visitors in 36 years, one quarter of whom are return customers.
- One of the smallest wineries in the nation, yet the only fully operating winery in 7,000 square miles at this western edge of the continent. An actual "brick-and-mortar" winery.

• Producing only unique and unusual wines, such as Wild Blackberry and Chocolate and the only whey wines in the world.

- 900 gallons of free wine tasting to guests in 36 years.

FULTANO'S HISTORY

39 years

Astoria Fultano's first opened in March of 1978, known as Pizza Vendor, owned and operated by Bob and Jeanette Fulton and was renamed Mr. Fultano's Pizza a couple of years later.

Robert and Cheryl Fulton purchased the business in 1982. They owned and operated Fultano's until it was sold to Mark Cary in 1998. In 2003, Fultano's expanded by adding the party and game room.

To this day, Mark continues to operate Fultano's staying true to their commitment, "Our family serving your family the best pizza in town!"
